Swimmers aim to make splash

SWIMMERS from a Cannock club are hoping for great success when they take part in a national championships from today (Thursday).

The British Gas ASA National Age Group Championships run until Monday (July 25) with 10 members of Chase Swimming Club due to compete. The swimmers qualified for an array of events having already progressed from county and regional competitions.

Mitchell Adshead, Joe Kinsell, Adam Lamb, Ben Colclough, Jordan Pilkington, Reiss Seymour, Ben Wood, Gabe Butler, Adam Silvester and Kelly Anne Smith are the members who will take part.

Only the top swimmers in their age group will compete in the event, which takes place at Ponds Forge in Sheffield.

Competitors are aged from 11 to 14 and distances include 100, 200, 400, 800 and 1,500-metre individual races, as well as medley and relay events.

Chase Swimming Club train regularly at centres in Cheslyn Hay, Rugeley, Cannock and Coventry.

Former member Emma Wilkins was recently selected in Great Britain's world championship team.

Principal is named as secondary school takes on academy status

THE principal of a Chase secondary school, soon to become an academy, has been announced.

David Evans, the current headteacher at Blake Valley Technology College, in Marston Road, Hednesford, has been confirmed as the new principal when it re-opens as an academy in September.

It will be renamed the Staffordshire University Academy, following a sponsorship deal.

Mr Evans, from Cannock, said: "I've been working with Staffordshire University to make the transition to the new academy as seamless and comfortable as possible for our students and staff."

"While we will be looking to new ways of teaching and learning, we are building on the reputation and work of Blake Valley."

Academy status gives the school access to a capital allocation of around £10million of government investment, a move away from local authority control and the appointment of a new governing body. Mr Evans, aged 50, said:

"These are exciting times and the new Academy will bring fantastic new opportunities for students and the wider Cannock community."

Mr Evans has spent more than three years as head at Blake Valley Technology College. Last month Staffordshire County Council confirmed its decision to formally close the school, paving the way for the new Academy.

Economy

Paul Richards, deputy vice-chancellor of Staffordshire University, said: "The University is making a positive impact on the region's economy by creating new educational opportunities and attracting new business and our sponsorship of the Academy is an important part of that."

"David has a passion and commitment to young people and it is our pleasure to be working with a school which, supported by its technology specialism, is committed to providing every student with an excellent learning experience."

Taste of county as pub reopens

A TASTE of Staffordshire is on offer at a recently refurbished pub which sources its ingredients from across the county.

The Redmore, on Hayfield Hill in Cannock Wood, has reopened after a £150,000 investment from Punch Taverns and its new licensees, Steven Lee and Daniel Child.

A new menu has been drawn up from working with Staffordshire businesses such as Burntwood-based Robinsons & Sons Butchers, with a wine list matched to the food chosen.

"We wanted to create a menu which reflected the fantastic range of food which is available on our doorstep in Staffordshire, so we have worked with local suppliers to find the very best foods from the region," said Mr Child, who previously worked at the Drill in Burntwood. Mr Lee is a former licensee and chef at the Nelson, in Chorley.

The investment has included a new lounge area as well as a more traditional dining space, which seats 48 customers.

Business relationship manager at Punch Taverns, Stuart Plant, said: "The Redmore has a great, fresh look which should see new and old customers visiting the pub and helping making the business a real success."

Sights set on eye care campaign

AN opticians based in Cannock has lifted the lid on a new campaign to promote children's eye care.

Targeted at parents, teachers and health professionals Chase Eyecare, in High Green, want to increase the number of children's sight tests they carry out over the summer holidays.

Shakeel Puri, clinic director and optometrist at the practice, said: "There seems to be a lack of understanding about eye health and I would urge parents to remember taking their children to see an optometrist or optician is just as important as the trip to the dentist or having their feet measured."

"This should ideally happen around the age of four, or even before, as problems detected this young can be corrected more easily."

Figures from the Optical Confederation show up to one million children across the UK will return to school in September with an undiagnosed vision problem which can have long-term effects on their everyday learning.

Bob Hughes, chief executive at the association of optometrists, said: "It's an absolute public health disgrace."

"There are problems which can be corrected in young people's eyes and yet it is a buried and unknown issue, that children are losing out on a good education because they can't see properly."

Chase Eyecare offers free NHS sight tests and glasses to all children under the age of 16 and for toddlers who are not yet able to read they offer a specially adapted picture examination.

For more information visit www.chaseeyecare.co.uk or to book a free consultation contact Chase Eyecare on 01543 570313 or the Hednesford practice on 01543 422198.

PROMISE IS MADE OVER TOWN SHOPS

by TIM SPIERS

tim.spiers@expressandstar.co.uk

A NEW shopping centre could be on the way to Burntwood after Lichfield District Council revealed talks were taking place with prospective owners.

Manchester-based Capital Properties NW, the current owners of the Sankey's Corner site, went into administration last month, sparking fears over the centre's future.

But council leader Mike Wilcox said he hoped to make an announcement soon on delivering the town centre "that Burntwood deserves".

Councillor Wilcox was pressed on the matter by Councillor Sue Woodward, of Chase Terrace ward at a council cabinet meeting. Councillor Woodward, who narrowly missed out on becoming MP for Cannock Chase last year, called for Burntwood businesses to be supported in both the short and long term.

"There's been a fair amount of scaremongering about this but I want to make sure that Lichfield District Council is doing all it can to allay people's fears and to ensure the future viability of the shopping centre," she said.

"The council leader gave his assurances on this so I shall be following up on what action they are now taking."

"The new town centre proposals were the top priority for local residents in consultations by Burntwood Town Council on the new town strategy."

"Let's hope that we'll soon hear some good news for the town, but in the meantime we still need to make sure current businesses are supported both in the short-term and in the longer-term too."

Retail and town centre development was made a top priority in Burntwood Town Council's town strategy, released earlier this year.

Lichfield District Council leader Councillor Wilcox said: "We are in detailed discussions with a major landowner at Burntwood and retailers in order to deliver the town centre that Burntwood deserves."

"Whilst I cannot give any further details for commercial reasons at this stage, I hope that I will be in a position to share more details at the next council meeting."

The next meeting of the cabinet will be on September 6.

Children: Show off your talents and a legend could be born

A SEARCH has been launched to find talented children who can show off their hidden genius to others.

The Chronicle and Cannock Chase Council have joined forces to find 15 children from across the district who shine in a particular field and want to demonstrate their skills.

For the 'Launch a Legend' project, we're on the lookout for budding chefs, guitar heroes or dancing divas. Maybe you have a child that paints like Picasso, is a wheely good skater or is a freestyle footballer.

The project is open to children aged five-to-11-years-old and if they have a unique forte, they could go global.

Children selected will each be professionally filmed and featured on Cannock Chase District Council's The Good Life website as well as on YouTube.

Lisa Shephard, from the council's Community Wellbeing and Arts department, said: "Launch a Legend is a way to inspire our children to take up hobbies and passions outside school that don't have to cost the earth.

"No matter how our children get on at school, it's important they develop interests which they may follow through into their youth and adulthood, which is key to living a healthier and happy lifestyle."

"To take a look at where your child may be featured, visit www.thegoodlife.uk.net which promotes fun ways to family health and is shared across the district and schools."

To register a child's talent, parents or carers are asked to simply go onto www.thegoodlife.uk.net and follow the links for Launching A Legend. You'll need to complete an online form and write no more than 100 words stating why your child should be featured.

Participating children must be aged five-to-11-years-old and live in the district of Cannock Chase.

They must undertake a hobby which they practise often, which can inspire the regular child to have a go. Only pocket money passions will be considered.

The children must be happy to be filmed, and must have parent/carer consent. They must be available to be filmed between August 15 and 22 and be happy to be featured in The Chronicle.

Responses must be made via the website no later than July 31. Completed forms received after this, will not be considered. All entrants will be notified on August 8 via email. Successful applicants will be contacted to co-ordinate a suitable time and place to be filmed.

The project needs to show an array of activities, skills and different ages, and will represent children from across the district. These will be selected by a panel of individuals, representing the partners involved, namely Cannock Chase Council Community Wellbeing Arts, The Chronicle and South Staffordshire Primary Care Trust and Greenwood Studios.

So, get in touch and you could launch a legend.

Gathering to mark Cruse's 30th birthday

BEREAVEMENT support workers from across Cannock and Lichfield joined to celebrate 30 years of care to the community.

Cruse Bereavement Care marked three decades of service at a special gathering on Thursday, July 7, at St Mary's Centre, in Lichfield.

Members were joined by a host of special guests including Lichfield's Mayor and Mayoress Brian and Norma Bacon, the Sheriff of Lichfield city council Dr Neville Brown, chairman of Cannock Chase council John Beddows and chairman of Burntwood town council Eric Drinkwater.

Other guests included representatives from some of the organisations which provide support for Cruse.

Expertise

Sue Williams, Cruse chairman for Cannock and Lichfield, said: "We listen to and support people struggling with their feelings of grief.

"We are proud of the work we do in our communities but we couldn't do it without those who give their time and expertise without payment, or without the generosity of our funders whose donations cover our costs."

The trained volunteers who provide understanding and sympathy to those finding it difficult to understand their grief are also supported by telephone helpline staff and a small number of administrators who work from their own homes.

To speak to a Cruse support worker or to make a donation e-mail Lichfield@cruse.org.uk or call the helpline on 01543 433479.

Camping show at wildlife base

CAMPING enthusiasts can check out all the latest gear at a tent show at Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's headquarters.

From July 23 to 31, Stafford Outdoor Leisure will be showcasing a massive display of tents, camping accessories and outdoor clothing on Park Bank at the Trust's Wolsley Centre at Wolsley Bridge, near Rugeley.

Visitors will also be able to enjoy the charity's 26 acres of grounds, which are accessible to wheelchairs and pushchairs and include three lakes, nature trails and picnic areas.

Admission is free and opening hours are 9am to 5pm Monday to Friday and 11am to 5pm at the weekend.

Visitor Centre manager Alison Rhodes said: "Anyone thinking of buying some new camping equipment will be able to get a real feel for it."

Golden moments of Staffordshire Hoard

Stephen Dean at the hoard's excavation site

IMAGINE being in the shoes of Steve Dean. You have made a discovery that will change the face of history. It is the highest point of your career, something that will never be repeated again.

And you cannot share it with anybody. Not even your closest family.

"It was very hard," says the Staffordshire County archaeologist, one of the first men on the scene when the Staffordshire Hoard was discovered by Burntwood metal detector enthusiast Terry Herbert in July, 2009.

"We could not say anything until the inquest in September. I had to go home, and I couldn't say anything. I couldn't tell any of my friends or fellow archaeologists.

"I got a bit of stick off my family afterwards." As the dig progressed, a select group of people were informed about what was going on.

"We spoke to Erica Bayliss, the ward councillor, so she could give an explanation if people started asking her what was going on.

"If anybody asked us, we just said we were looking for Roman remains."

Two years on since its discovery, the hoard went on display at Stafford's Shire Hall gallery – and last weekend the display attracted its 10,000th visitor.

Seeing the Hoard on show in the town where he works is quite an emotional time for Steve. "It is an exhibition like no other," he says.

For Steve, July 14, 2009, was just another working day when he received a telephone call from finds officer Duncan Clarke.

"Duncan rang to tell me that someone with a metal detector had found an Anglo-Saxon hoard," he says. "We weren't too sure, and I told Duncan to go out and get a few photographs. He sent them out the next morning, and I was just shocked by what I saw. There were Pommel caps, sword pyramids – it's not something you see every day. Terry had found more than 500 items."

But nothing could have prepared him for the sight that greeted him when he finally made his way down to Fred Johnson's farm in Hammerwich.

"I think the first indication that it was something serious was when nine Anglo Saxon Pommel caps came out of the ground. We dug a small trench, about a metre square, and the stuff just kept coming out, all of the highest quality."

"It wasn't the usual pots, it was all precious metal, and there was more and more of it. I've been an archaeologist since 1994 and before that I think I found about two pieces of gold. You have never seen anything like this before, there is joy and elation, but you also know it will never happen again, it will be downhill all the way after this."

Amid all these emotions was an awesome sense of responsibility, that great care would be needed to make sure that the finds would be perfectly preserved. There was no margin for error, particularly as, at this stage, it was not clear whether they had stumbled on a hoard or an Anglo Saxon ruin.

Luck

Security had to be tight as well, he says. Ward councillor Steve says it was a great stroke of luck the hoard was discovered when it was. Had it been any later it could have been damaged when the field was ploughed.

Shire Hall's audience development officer Laura Hilton has been one of a team preparing for this exhibition since the start of the year. She says there was a lot of excitement when it was first revealed it was coming to Stafford.

"The first time I saw it was quite a strange feeling, it wasn't quite what I expected," she says. "You expect, when it's called a hoard, treasure, for it to be lots of large items. When you see these small things, covered in mud, you think for a moment 'what's the significance of that?'"

"But then you look at it, and the more you think about it, and the more you look at it, the more important it becomes. It's amazing, really."

Steve Dean says one thing we still do not know is how the treasure belonged to, and how it came to be buried. And he says we should not expect answers any time soon.

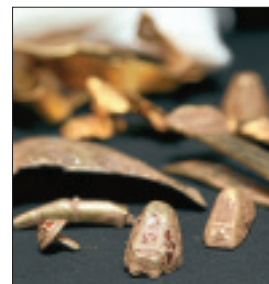

"I think it's going to be taxing people for 20 or 30 years," he says. "A lot of it is seeing how the pieces fit together, then we can find out what the pieces are, what their function was. It's like a jigsaw puzzle, only you don't have all the pieces. And you can't look at the box."

Gnosall woman Kate Robeson became the 10,000th visitor to the Staffordshire Hoard on Tour exhibition.

She was presented with memorabilia from the show which runs until July 24 and then moves on to Lichfield Cathedral.

Council set for a 'roof rent' in pilot

A PILOT scheme to provide solar panels on 25 council homes in Cannock is to be undertaken by British Gas as part of its Rent A Roof scheme.

The cost of installation and maintenance would be met by the company while Cannock Chase District Council would receive a 'roof rent' for the next 25 years.

All the properties would be situated on a single estate, with the council earning £30 per roof annually from British Gas and tenants receiving some free electricity.

A survey of the Cannock Chase district two years ago suggested solar panels could be installed on 1,400 council homes, just over a quarter of the housing stock. Not all properties are suitable.

With installation estimated at £10,000 a property, some £14 million would be needed to cover all potential homes, a report to a meeting of today's (Thursday) cabinet reveals.

Officers have recommended approval of the pilot. By going ahead with the scheme, the authority expects to be able to estimate the number of tenants who want to have solar panels installed and how much would be saved on electricity bills.

THE rain stopped right on cue as Cannock Carnival parade set off on its traditional route around the town watched by hundreds of onlookers.

Traffic was stopped as the colourful procession made its way from Cannock Park in Park Road, along the Ringway, around Queen Square and down Church Street on Saturday (July 16).

Music from Westhill Primary School steel band and Cannock Chase Drum Corps along with clowns, stilt-walkers and gambolling gymnasts added to the occasion.

The town centre was taken over by children's fairground rides and stalls. Carnival Queen Laura Burkitt, aged 17, a drama student from Highfield Avenue, Burntwood mingled with the crowds in a stunning yellow dress.

Jelly

Outside Co-Op Travel, in Market Hall Street, employee Gemma Read sat in a bath of raspberry jelly for five hours to raise money for domestic violence charity Women's Aid.

The 28-year-old, of Ashbourne Close, Cannock, said: "It's been very cold but it's for a good cause."

The day was the perfect chance for youngsters to show off their talents. Bridgtown Primary School created an animal-themed float.

Students in mercy mission to Africa

PUPILS from Great Wyrley and Cheslyn Hay secondary schools have travelled to South Africa to work on a local Christian project.

The Link 4 Life Project has been fundraising for months for the aid mission.

Taking part in the mission are Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School pupils Ryan Bickley, Leah Davidson, Jack Ford, Rachel Kearsey, Matt Stoddart, Mae Turrell-Walker, Kelsey Webb and Todd Green along with Chloe Minton and Rhianon Weaver from Cheslyn Hay Sport and Community High School.

With them are teachers Barry Stokes and Dawn Allen and adults from St Mark's Church and the wider community.

Teaching

The group set off from Great Wyrley last Thursday (July 14) and will return home tomorrow (Friday). The project supports the Hands at Work and Mercy Air charities in southern Africa and the Baby Bear Project at the neonatal unit in St Mary's Hospital, Durban.

The group is helping those affected by HIV/Aids in the Masoya area and doing work including gardening, cleaning and teaching children.

Some are assisting Mercy Air which flies people, goods and materials around the continent.

New fleet discussed by cabinet

COUNCILLORS were today (Thursday) set to consider splashing out £172,000 on new vans and trucks to replace ageing vehicles.

The five large vans and two trucks are needed at Cannock Chase Council's housing division based at the Hawks Green depot in Old Hednesford Road.

The department has 33 vehicles which are used to provide housing maintenance and estate caretaking services. But seven of the fleet, bought between 2000 and 2005, have become too expensive to maintain because of heavy wear and tear.

There is an annual provision of £22,490 in the housing budget for replacing old vehicles but this is inadequate to finance the new ones. The council is to look at setting up a special budget to pay for them.

A report to today's cabinet meeting recommends approval of the cash request.

Karters' chance to be the quickest

A GO-KART grand prix is being held through the summer at Chasewater Country Park.

Park rangers are entering everyone who has a go on the park's pedal-powered go-karts into the competition, which takes place every weekday inclusive from July 25 to September 2.

Visitors over the age of seven have the chance to do two timed laps, and enter their fastest time into the contest.

The rangers will keep a tally of all the times, and, at the end of the summer, will find out who are the quickest drivers.

The three top drivers will be awarded podium positions and prizes at a presentation on September 4.

Ellen Williams, one of the rangers, said: "It only costs £1.50 to do two laps, and, you never know, you could find out you're on course to becoming the next formula one champion."

The go-kart circuit is next to the boating pool.

During the holidays and on the weekends, visitors can also enjoy crazy golf and paddle boating.

Rotary aid for Kenyan emergency

THE Rotary Club of Cannock is to give £1,200 to help with the humanitarian crisis in East Africa.

The club voted to donate £1,000 from its reserves to be sent immediately to the Disasters Emergency Committee to assist with providing food and medicines to the people in the Kenyan refugee camps.

A £200 donation has been sent to the club from the Clock Towers Shopping Centre, in Rugby.

President Mel Morgan said: "We are delighted to be able to offer immediate assistance."

Charity given art sale cash

AN artist is donating half the proceeds from sales of her paintings currently on show to the Cats Protection charity.

Gloria Thompson's work, entitled All Things Bright and Beautiful is on display at the Museum of Cannock Chase's coffee shop until September 4.

The exhibition features landscapes, seascapes, flowers and cats. The Valley Road, Hednesford, museum is open from 11am to 5pm.

Staff don't Ide from Marines fundraiser

COMMANDOS in Cannock took part in a gruelling challenge and raised more than £5,500 for the Royal Marines Charitable Trust.

Ide Systems based on Swaffield Park, at Hyssop Close, Hawks Green, entered the annual two-day event last month at Woodbury Common - the Royal Marines training centre.

Ide systems employee and former marine Matt Collins led the Cannock Commandos and joined 4,000 other entrants through the muddy course which included a 17km endurance run.

Matt said: "We feel we have done our bit for the brave boys in uniform and are very proud as a company at the amount we have raised."

The charity, which is similar to Help for Heroes, was set up to help Marines suffering the long term effects of injuries sustained while in service.

It also offers help to those unable to continue in their old roles retrain for new careers through specialist support.

This year's commando challenge raised a total of £220,000.

Indoor market idea launched by developer

A NEW indoor market is being launched in Hednesford.

Developer Fred Pritchard has announced that his Lightworks shopping centre in is to be re-modelled to provide a market hall which will be open three or four days a week.

His scheme comes hot on the heels of the closure of Brownhills market in Silver Street and an announcement that Spencers Instore Market in High Street, Dudley, is to shut on Saturday (July 23).

Mr Pritchard says his move is on the back of the regeneration of Hednesford which will see a giant Tesco and other new stores coming to the town.

Pritchard Group plc will keep shops and a restaurant along the front of the Lightworks complex in Market Street.

"Hednesford is suffering from a dearth of trade particularly on the retail front with large companies going out of business, which gives the small shopkeeper the opportunity to have a go," Mr Pritchard said.

Unoccupied

The £3 million Lightworks opened in April 2009 on the site of the former Lucas Lighting factory, with 16 units and 19 apartments.

Mr Pritchard admitted it had been difficult to let the units and a third were unoccupied. He said only one business would be relocated to make way for the market scheme.

"We have not fully costed the project but it will mainly involve re-modelling. We are checking if we will need planning permission," he added.

Mr Pritchard, who is also president of Cannock Chamber of Commerce, said the market would be important for the regeneration of Hednesford.

Changes to affect rail users

RAIL commuters across the Chase face losing two morning rush-hour services in plans being drawn up by London Midland.

The proposed change affects the 6.21am Rugeley to Birmingham and 7.39am Hednesford to Birmingham services.

London Midland plans to replace them with two new services leaving Rugeley at 5.55am and 8.06am. It also wants to reduce the capacity of the 4.39pm Birmingham to Rugeley service.

The firm says the move will provide 660 extra seats into Birmingham in the three-hour morning peak.

The company argues it will potentially reduce journey times between Walsall and Birmingham by using electric instead of diesel carriages.

Parking at Christmas is debated

COUNCIL bosses in Cannock are in talks over whether to provide free parking for festive shoppers.

Cannock Chase District Council must decide whether to sacrifice up to £26,000 in order to help out beleaguered town centre traders by providing free parking for the run-up to Christmas.

For the past four years, parking fees in Cannock and Rugeley have either been dropped altogether or a minimal charge brought in on the two Saturdays prior to December 25.

The authority has now received a request from Rugeley Traders Association to increase the perk to cover more days.

They have asked the council to abandon the option of providing free parking for two days in favour of a "significantly reduced" fee throughout December.

Meanwhile, the council was this week set to extend a pioneering scheme to give cancer patients free parking for a further three months.

A six-month trial is already in place in Stafford.

The Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust, which runs Stafford and Cannock hospitals, is the first in the country to set up such a scheme which applies to any of the council's car parks in either town centre.

The scheme applies to patients who do not automatically qualify for a blue badge but suffer fatigue as a result of their treatment.

Architect is talk subject

SIR Christopher Wren will be the topic of the next talk at Cheslyn Hay & District Local History Society.

Malcolm Astley will be giving the talk at the Salem, in High Street, Cheslyn Hay, from 7.30pm next Thursday (July 28).

Admission is £1 including refreshments.

Community day will mark end of project

A COMMUNITY celebration will mark the completion of a £400,000 scheme to extend a Hednesford community centre.

Hednesford Town Council has taken out a loan of £225,000 to enable the project to go ahead at Pye Green Community Centre in Bradbury Lane and the work is on course to be completed in October.

The centre will be closed from August 1 to mid October so internal work can be completed, with the venue expected to back in action by the end of October.

Town clerk Peter Harrison said: "We are planning an open day at the end of November to show off the improvements and offer a showcase for all the community groups, clubs and organisations that use the centre. We want the people of Hednesford to come on the day and take a look at their new look community centre."

Capsule

"We are also in the process of contacting local schools to invite them to take part in a project to produce a time capsule to be included in the completed building to show what was happening in Hednesford in 2011. We may even put a final copy of the News of the World inside," said Mr Harrison.

To get involved or to suggest ideas, call Mr Harrison on 01543 424872. He also wants to hear from local bands willing to play on the day.

The community centre was originally built in the 1970s but over the years has become increasingly dilapidated and difficult to maintain over the years.

The extension will increase the building by a third and provide facilities for Citizens Advice Bureau outreach and police and councillors' surgeries. There will also be an IT suite and a light-filled exhibition space.

Blown away by balloon ride offer

TETHERED hot air balloon flights will form part of the fun at a Party in the Park in Cannock this weekend.

It is being held on Sunday (July 24) to mark the 40th anniversary of Cannock's twinning link with German town Datteln.

Heath Hayes firm Blown Away will be offering the balloon rides, while other activities will include face painting, circus skills workshops, balloon modelling, arts and crafts demonstrations and an assault course.

Cannock Chase Council is organising the event as part of ongoing celebrations marking the four decades of the town twinning link.

Every year since 1971 organisations have been visiting Datteln, in North Rhine-Westphalia to make new friends and forge links.

The free admission event will run between 11.30am and 4.30pm with live music and entertainment from Cannock Highland Pipe Band, Rugeley Power Station Brass Band, an oompah band, West Hill Steel Band, Cannock Chase Drum Corps and Chadsmoor Choral Society.

Protected reptiles hold up access road building work

WORK on the building of an access track at Cannock Wood tip cannot take place until a hunt for protected snakes and lizards has taken place.

Adders and common lizards were recorded close to the site between March and June 2009. The Coal Authority has applied to construct a new permanent access track from Cannock Wood Industrial Estate to the western boundary of the tip and increase the size of the borehole pumping compound.

But a report to the authority says work should not be allowed until there has been a thorough hand-search for reptiles

Students end their voyage of discovery

PUPILS from a Burntwood school sailed under Tower Bridge to end their tall ship voyage from the North East to London via Scotland and Holland.

Oliver Sharma, Sarah Asplin and Chloe Harrison-Hurd, all aged 17, of Chase-town Specialist Sports College took part in the Tall Ships Youth Trust Voyage of Achievement aboard the Stavros S Niarchos, a 60-metre steel hulled, two-masted, square-rigged brig. The trio were among a crew of 48 students from 24 schools who set sail from Newcastle-upon-Tyne on a 10-day adventure, taking them to Leith in Scotland and the Dutch port of Scheveningen before their arrival in London. They sailed under Tower Bridge last Wednesday (July 13).

Decks

During the voyage they worked in teams to scale the masts, scrub decks, keep watch and the Dutch port of Scheveningen before their arrival in London. They sailed under Tower Bridge last Wednesday (July 13).

More than 500 young people have now taken part in the Voyage of Achievement, funded by HSBC, since it was launched 11 years ago.

Peter Bull, Head of HSBC in the Community, said: "These voyages develop important life skills that young people can take back into their community, school or into a future career."

Club is set to mark its 90th year

A CANNOCK club is to celebrate its 90th anniversary next month.

A beer festival is taking place from August 12 to 14 as part of the celebrations at Cannock Ex-Servicemen's Club in Walsall Road.

The club was founded by a group of First World War veterans in 1921. They wanted to replicate the camaraderie they had experienced while serving in the forces.

The club is still going strong with more than 500 members.

The club still puts on special events each year to mark D Day, VE Day, VJ Day and the Battle of Britain.

It also has a thriving male voice choir and is the base for many other local military and non-military organisations.

Hob Hill Primary School youngsters take part in the street dance fundraiser

Fundraising to tune of £750 from street dance

CHILDREN in Rugeley have raised more than £750 by holding a street dance event.

The children at Hob Hill Primary School took part in the event ran by local firm Progressive Sports.

The youngsters enjoyed an active routine performed to chart music in order to raise money for the school's sports department.

Each class took part in over 40 Minutes of Street dance where they were taught various dance moves and then compiled them into a routine to perform in the school hall at the end of the day.

Adam Shakesheave, operations manager for Progressive Sports, said: "The pupils and staff dressed in their coolest street gear and really looked the part."

"Thanks to the fantastic efforts of all who took part, over £750 has been raised to fund the purchase of new sports equipment for the school."

Retired officer handled 1986 Colwich rail disaster

Ex-police commander dies at the age of 67

A FORMER commander of Cannock police has died at the age of 67 following a long illness.

Bernard Bryan died at his home in Little Haywood, near Stafford, on Sunday, July 10. He was a superintendent when he retired in 1992 after 30 years with the Staffordshire force.

For many years he was the commander of the Cannock sub-division and he also served in Stafford and Lichfield. Mr Bryan was also with the Central Traffic Group. He handled the Colwich rail disaster which happened near his home in 1986. Two express trains collided at Colwich Junction, killing one and injuring 75 others.

Ex-police commander Bernard Bryan

Mr Bryan, who leaves a wife Chris, daughter Paula and grandchildren Zachary and Roxy, spent two years with Derbyshire police before coming to Staffordshire as a sergeant in 1962.

In 1983 he became the then Chief Constable Charles Kelly's first staff officer.

Wonderful

In his later years with the force he was responsible for cadet training. After retiring in 1992 he set up safety in the workplace business Aura Training Ltd in Hednesford.

Mrs Bryan said her husband had retired about five years ago. He had a lifelong love of first aid and in 1991 was invested as a Companion of the Order of St John.

Mr Bryan, who had a BA and was a member of the Institute of Training and Development also did a lot of charity work and was responsible for the starting the Weston Park Spring Spectacular.

"He was a very well-respected figure. He was a wonderful man," said Mrs Bryan.

His funeral was being held at 11am today (Thursday) at St Michael's Church, Colwich. There will be family flowers only with donations in lieu of Katharine House Hospice's care at home team.

Popular pub shuts as customers fail in bid to raise cash

A BURNWOOD pub has closed after an unsuccessful attempt by regulars to buy it.

Customers at the Centurion in Chase Road, have been trying since February to raise £200,000 to save the 150-year-old one-room pub from redevelopment for housing.

Three major investors had already pledged money but £50,000 still needed to be found to buy the pub from owner Peter Sharpe. He had agreed to sell the pub if the money could be raised.

Planning permission to convert the pub to a home and build another four properties on the land has been obtained. Sue Felton, licensee of eight years, said she and the regulars were devastated it had been forced to close.

It is a very sad thing to happen because this pub has been here for 150 years. It doesn't seem right," she said. "We just couldn't raise enough money."

A closing down party was held at the pub on July 9 and it opened for the final time the following Wednesday (July 13).

New group's railway talk

A TALK on the steam railways of the Cannock Chase area has been arranged for the newly formed Hazel Slade Local History Society.

Local historian Derek Davies will be giving the talk in the lounge of the Hazel Slade Inn on September 8 at 7.15pm.

Model hope for Shannon

Shannon Park of Penkridge is in the final of Teen Princess UK

A PENKBRIDGE schoolgirl is to represent her region in the finals of a modelling contest.

Shannon Park, of Bartlett Close, won the regional heats of Teen Princess UK and will now represent Staffordshire in the national finals this September in London.

The 14-year-old will compete with around 50 other girls to win the final prize during a two-day contest being held at Alexandra Palace. Shannon was spotted by scouts at The Clothes Show Live, held in Birmingham last year, when she was walking around with her mother Sara, aged 43.

The final decision will be made by a panel of judges.

If Shannon wins she will be asked to model at this year's Clothes Show, and receive a photography portfolio and a load of pampering gifts.

Couple in Paris ride for charity

Cycling couple David and Laura

A COUPLE from Burntwood raised £1,500 through a sponsored bike ride from London to Paris.

Laura Allsopp and her boyfriend David Tranter were raising funds for the Breast Cancer Campaign. They were among 80 people taking part in the 220-mile Student Adventures ride.

Laura, aged 21, is studying publishing with English at Loughborough University. She said: "It was hard but really great."

"We would like to thank everyone that has donated."

Laura decided to take part because her aunt had been diagnosed with breast cancer.

She organised a charity night at the Foresters Tavern in Ogley Hay Road as part of the fundraising and managed to raise £220 from that.

Local businesses in Sankeys Corner donated prizes.

Salon worker a WorldSkills final contender

A FORMER South Staffordshire College student has qualified for the WorldSkills UK finals.

Gemma Wadsworth, aged 20, of Great Wyrley, took third place in the regional World Skills UK competition, qualifying for the national final with a treatment routine she created herself.

A year ago, Gemma qualified from the Cannock campus with level three in aromatherapy massage.

Now she works full-time for a beauty salon in Burntwood.

"I would love to develop my skills further and I can take my qualification anywhere," she said.

Many South Staffordshire College beauty students have achieved success in the WorldSkills and UKSkills competitions.

Goodie bags are sent off to troops

GUIDES and Brownies from Great Wyrley have sent off more than 50 goodie bags to soldiers serving in Afghanistan.

The girls had been collecting items for a number of weeks to be sent out to 3 Mercian troops.

The bags included a letter and district name tabs for the soldiers to sew onto their blankets.

A stunning show of Incredible Illucinations

AYOUNG cast wowed an audience of more than 100 people when they took to the stage at their Burntwood school. Drama students at Chase Terrace Technology College performed the comedy Ernie's Incredible Illucinations by Alan Ayckbourn. The 11 to 14-year-olds are working towards an Arts Council award and worked outside of school lessons to put the play on. Rehearsals started in November.

Head of drama Dawn Maymand said: "They were fantastic. I'm so proud of them. They've worked really hard for this and it's paid off. The plot of the play is a bit bonkers, concerning Ernie being taken to see a doctor by his parents because they're concerned about his 'illucinations' which turn out to be real.

"It's a fast-moving play with a lot of different settings so we had to be creative about how to set the scene. Not only did pupils do themselves proud but the production will count as the performance element towards their Bronze Arts Award.

Year 10 pupils made the posters for the play which was opened up to the community.

Chase Terrace's Charlotte Somers, aged 12, Ellie Tooth, 12, Megan Austin, 12, Katy Williams, 13 and Danielle Powell, 14, who star in Ernie's Incredible Illucinations

Town seeking the right image

A LOGO for Burntwood may be created as part of efforts to improve the town.

Burntwood Town Council has recently agreed a town strategy and members will be asked to develop a number of action areas.

Local organisations will be asked to help draw up action plans and local young artists will be invited to submit ideas for the brand image for the town.

Traders' fears over parking shake-up

TRADERS in Hednesford fear a major shake-up of parking restrictions could hamper crucial stock deliveries.

Under controversial proposals, unveiled by Staffordshire County Council's parking board, the five-minute unloading time given to delivery drivers would be scrapped.

The panel has consulted residents and businesses in the town centre about the plans. The changes would affect Anglesey Street and Eskrett Street.

Eight out of 10 residents who responded to the consultation supported the idea but shopkeepers are worried about the move having a damaging impact on their business. A report prepared by the county council was set to be discussed by Cannock Chase Council's joint parking committee yesterday (Wednesday).

The proposal is to alter the current "no waiting at any time" parking restriction on the north side of Anglesey Street where it meets Market Street.

Stock

The intention is to remove the five-minute grace given to delivery drivers offloading stock for local traders which, along with a line of taxis on the opposite side of the road, causes a build-up of traffic.

Chirene Plant, owner of Hednesford

Kitchens Limited, which sits on the corner of Anglesey Street and Market Street, says the changes will leave her business "stuffed".

She says she is clueless as to how delivery drivers are going to drop off or collect heavy cookers and kitchen equipment.

The 46-year-old said the solution to the problems in the road was to remove the disabled parking spaces or move the taxi rank.

Ellen Webster, aged 42, a receptionist at Terry's Taxis, agreed something had to be done about the build-up of cars in Anglesey Street.

She said: "It's a very busy road, I'm surprised no-one has been knocked down."

£50m town scheme is 'progressing well'

THE first stage of Hednesford's £50 million redevelopment could be complete within weeks.

A new bingo club and cadet building, forming part of the Gateway development is progressing on target, with the handover set for the autumn.

Construction began in April after planning approval was granted by Cannock Chase District Council.

The first phase of development includes new purpose built premises for Hollywood Bingo Club and the Reserve Forces and Cadets Association, plus the creation of new retail spaces facing Market Street and Rugeley Road.

Retail

Demolition work to prepare for the new retail units on Market Street has also commenced with construction expected to get under way later this summer.

Work on the retail units with car parking on the Rugeley Road car park is on target to begin this autumn with completion expected towards the end of this year.

Initial works to prepare phase two for construction have begun with the second phase due to encompass the redevelopment of the Victoria Street area of the town, a primarily retail led redevelopment including an 80,000 sq ft elevated Tesco foodstore, with undercover car parking.

The Tesco foodstore will be situated alongside a terrace of non-food retail units and a retail kiosk, which together will deliver 38,000 sq ft of new commercial space.

Tesco and the non-food retail units are scheduled to be handed over to their occupiers in time for Christmas 2012 trading.

The plans for Phase Two also includes a new 10,000 sq ft community facility to replace the existing Aquarius Community Hall.

Councillor Diane Todd, town centre regeneration leader, said: "The regeneration will transform Hednesford town centre and we're delighted that work is progressing so well."

Opening of sensory garden

Marion Preece and Lyn Newell open the sensory garden at Lakeview Care Home

A SENSORY garden has been opened at a care home in Great Wyrley.

The garden at Lakeview Care Home in Stafford Road, was created to improve the lives of residents. It features sweet-scented, colourful plants such as roses and lavender.

Activities co-ordinator Marian Preece, who is due to retire next year, wanted to create the garden as a lasting retirement gift for the residents. She set about transforming the outdoor space into the sensory garden with fellow activities co-ordinator, Lyn Newell.

The pair work with residents with dementia in the home's Ullswater and Loweswater units. Fundraising events helped to generate the £5,000 needed to pay for the garden which has been named the Preece and Newell Sensory Garden. It was opened by County councillor Kath Perry.

Profit-making goes before the residents' quality of life

I WISH to comment on the proposed incinerator at Kingswood Lakeside.

The development is based around a series of lakes, is part of a former opencast coal site next to the existing Orbital retail park in Churchbridge.

Its transformation into a hi-tech business park is a major development opportunity and has already secured investment from inward investors and existing local businesses, such as DHL and 3663.

Situated just north of the West Midlands conurbation, Cannock Chase District extends from the A5 in the south to Rugeley in the north. At its heart lie the majestic woodlands, valleys and heathlands of Cannock Chase, an internationally acclaimed Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

The District offers a high standard of housing, education, healthcare, shopping, sports, leisure and entertainment facilities – in fact this all makes Cannock Chase District an ideal location to live, to work, to do business and to visit.

All the above sounds excellent. But not now, due to the Staffordshire County Council Planning Committee decision on Thursday, July 7 for they have made a big mistake for the people of Cannock Chase. They have passed a proposed ERF (Energy RECOVERY Facility) plant to be built on the Kingswood Lakeside site. The incinerator was given planning permission on the casting vote of the chairman of the committee. There were only nine members turned up for this very important item, four members voted against and four voted for the development, one member abstained even though the impression he gave during the meeting was that he was against the development. The chairman gave his casting vote and permission was given.

I'm so disillusioned and confused that considering that there were objections to this plan from all six neighbouring parish councils, the district council officers and 41 district councillors, six local county councillors and two MPs, plus the residents of the surrounding areas, they still passed it.

You must realise that this incinerator is not burning your normal household domestic waste it is to burn industrial and commercial waste but not from Cannock or Staffordshire but from waste from within the West Midlands and Warwickshire being transported into the site.

Cannock will now be known as the dumping ground of Staffordshire. This passing of the plan will not benefit Cannock but only the owners Biffa.

This is purely a profit making industrial venture and I feel that the committee have been duped by putting money before the quality of life to the residents of the area.

Millions of homes affected by fuel poverty

WE are on the brink of another recession that will affect almost everyone in the country and, far more, the sick and vulnerable in society. Yet we seem mesmerised with the phone hacking enquiry.

What has happened at News International is regrettable and sickening. To pay private eyes to hack phones of crime victims and families of lost soldiers is endemically wrong. It is a diversion to the real things that affects readers.

Official figures this week reveals that there are more than five million homes in fuel poverty.

While I feel it is too early to write the epitaph of the Murdoch's there is certainly evidence to write the epitaphs of a lot of the people affected by fuel poverty. Yet there is no reported thoughts that the winter fuel allowance will be revised upwards to try to eliminate this. In fact the Government has said it will cut the winter fuel allowance.

It is also reported that the landlords are using the downturn to fill their pockets that makes me ask are we heading for another round of Rache-manism? It has also been reported that an average of 10 garages a week are closing, that not only is fuel rising but the cost of procuring it is going up as motorists are forced to travel further to fill their tanks. Before the coalition the Lib Dems used to boast they were to the left of the Labour Party and I foolishly thought they would be a moderating influence on the Tories. Surely it is time for the electorate to say enough is enough. I wonder what our local MP's position is on these points?

Great news Cuts being made from the bottom up

RE: Amazon coming to Rugeley.

It's great news for the town, although it's scared a number of my neighbours to death. They fear they may have to get a job after a lifetime on the dole.

STEVE DUNNING
ADDRESS SUPPLIED

'CALAMITY' Clegg plans to reduce the power of Rupert Murdoch's empire. "No one man should have that much power," he bleats.

"So why not do the same with the gas, electric and petrol Companies now there are 5.5million in fuel poverty?"

'Cocksure' Cameron, also without a mandate from the electorate has publicly stated he is another Thatcher and will sell all public services.

We are all suffering from her leadership, so Oliver Letwin on the Government's White Paper (July 12 at 3.40pm) stated: "We don't care who runs the public serices," Kenneth Clarke is privatising the prison service, the NHS is collapsing with cuts from the bottom up, not from the top down as it should be.

We are struggling now – just imagine what it will be in another five years if Cameron gets his way. Our own MP Aidan Burley is heading a forum to protect Cannock Chase, as the Forestry Commission is valued at £3.5 billion – not much hope there then.

Just what have we done to end up with a country run by Muppets?

Wonderful zoo under threat Cricket match raises cash for Cancer Research UK

MY cousin and I went to a wonderful zoo recently, but couldn't believe it when we saw on their website when we got back home which was dated May 28, 2011. It said: 'We desperately need your help or we may have to close'.

The zoo is Blackbrook Zoo in Winkhill, near Ashbourne, www.blackbrookzoo.co.uk

It has been running for 20 years, although we hadn't heard of it until a few weeks ago. It is on the edge of Staffordshire, nine miles from Ashbourne and six miles from Alton Towers and on the edge of the Peak District. It would make a lovely day out for all ages from toddlers to pensioners and disabled people.

The zoo has the largest collection of birds in the UK and the world's largest waterfowl collection. It houses penguins, lemurs, meerkats and zebras.

It is in a lovely setting with gardens, waterfalls, lakes, thatched roofs and covered areas and walkways.

I WOULD like to say thank you to the contestants and friends at the London inter-village cricket match on July 2 for their kind donations to Cancer Research UK.

The total amount raised was £50. The money will be put on my Just Giving website and takes the total raised so far to £1,002.05. We are aiming to raise £10,000 by the year 2014 when my friend Lee and I will be attempting to swim the English Channel.

If anyone wishes to follow our progress or make a donation they can do so by visiting the site at www.justgiving.com/ellenlee. Thank you.

Call to back lotto as ticket sales dwindle

TRADERS and shoppers are being urged to get behind Hednesford town centre lottery.

The scheme had been temporarily scrapped because so few people had bought tickets. Now Councillor Linda Whitehouse, vice-chairman of Hednesford Traders, is calling on more businesses to get behind it.

The initiative, where people buy a £1 ticket to be in with the chance of sharing a community cash pot, was dropped in May as not enough tickets were sold to keep the project afloat. Despite being resurrected in June, it is still only bringing in around £350 a month, compared to around £700 in Rugeley.

Councillor Whitehouse says the scheme will benefit the whole community. She said: "I think we could do with making the public aware that the more we sell the better it is for the whole community."

"Over seven months Hednesford Lotto has averaged £353 per month. Some months have been higher than others. We have eight traders selling tickets on a regular basis and for a couple of months we went up to 11 traders."

From the lottery tickets sold each month, the winner is awarded 50 per cent of the proceeds as their prize. Five per cent goes to lottery running costs and the final 45 per cent is used to fund future town centre events and promotions.

Struggling

"We really could do with more support, if we were to sell 1,000 tickets the winner would receive £500 cash, so the more we sell the more we all benefit," said Councillor Whitehouse. Businesses can advertise on the tickets.

Visit www.finditinhednesford.co.uk for more details or call 01543 899695.

Cannock's local lottery has also been struggling. Natal Chapman, chairman of the Traders Association, said the town was only bringing in £100 a month.

Rambling on in Cheshire

RAMBLERS will be taking a hike to Croker Hill in Cheshire this weekend.

The nine-mile walk, led by the Chase & District Group Ramblers takes place on Sunday (July 24).

Departure time is 9am prompt. Meet at Meet Hednesford bus station car park, in Victoria Street. Call 07954 170369 for more.

Performance is out of this world

A PERFORMANCE inspired by the last space shuttle launch earlier this month entertained visitors at the 30th Lichfield Festival.

Schools from across the region joined forces on July 13 to stage the show, called Orbital, after taking part in rehearsals since Easter.

Festival organisers were keen to go outside the city to find their young theatrical stars, selecting pupils from the likes of Norton Canes High School and Gentleshaw Primary.

About 100 youngsters in total were involved in the show which was performed at locations throughout the town - outside the Cathedral, in the busy Market Square and in Stonefield Park.

Pupils had been asked to look at the city as though they were alien invaders from space, exploring the city's architecture, streets and parks.

Jennifer Smith, the Festival's learning and participation manager, said: "It was a great day and the children were really excited about performing in different spaces. We told them it was an experiment and we didn't know whether or not it would work but they were all up for the challenge."

What's in store for shoppers as signs show centre has seen its best days?

Changing times for the town's traders

No problems for designer clothes shop owner Lucy Brown

THE retired gentlemen on the bowling green in the centre of Cannock remember a town centre that was far busier than it is today.

They recall a time in the town's mining past where independent retailers stocked everything people needed and wanted.

Compared with other parts of the West Midlands, such as West Bromwich, this is a town centre that is still doing well.

But the signs of a High Street that may have seen its best days are there.

Three charity shops in a row – British Heart Foundation, Katharine House and Age UK – make up a total of five in and around Market Place. And there are no fewer than five opticians within a few hundred feet of each other.

Change

Don Dyer, aged 81, is about to start bowling on Cannock Bowling Green but shares his view of the town. Having been a member at the green for many years, the retired catering manager of Newhall Street, has watched in change around him.

"It's not a town to come shopping in any more", he says. "It's all building societies and banks. It doesn't attract the quality of shops it used to."

The centre has had some important visitors. Mike Hewlitt, president of the bowling green club, said Prince Charles had stopped and had a bowl there in 1977.

"If I knew what to do about the High Street I'd buy a few shops myself", the 72-year-old former lecturer says. "When coal mining was thriving the streets were packed, but when that went so did a lot of the shops."

Nonetheless the town still has some good High Street names – Boots, New Look, WH Smith, Gamestation, Dunelm Mill, JD Sports, Superdrug and Iceland – all of which show somewhere that is far from being abandoned by the national retailers.

The indoor market is not trading on the day we arrive to talk to retailers but all its stalls are taken. And there are still traders who are willing to start up a new business in Cannock.

Lucy Brown started her clothes shop Brown's in High Green Court last April, despite the recession. The 37-year-old, from Gorseley Lane, Great Wyrley, relies on people who know where to find her. Two shops to the left of Brown's are empty, and the shop to the right is the office of MP Aidan Burley.

"It is quiet here but I haven't really noticed a problem", she says. "I stock designer labels so usually I find people have come here with something in mind that they want to buy."

At the Gas Shop on Market Place, which opened 18 months ago, Judy Elsmore, aged 49, from Stafford, says she still needs people to browse around the other shops in the hope that they will notice the showers and other gas appliance she sells. "What you usually find is it's the women who come in during the week, have a look and then bring their husbands or partners back at the weekend."

Profitable

At the Home Appliance Centre in Walsall Road, owner Steve Norman is hoping Cannock proves to be more profitable than Brownhills.

The 45-year-old from Heath Hayes says: "We moved out of Brownhills in January. We were on the precinct (Ravens Court) but everyone was moving out."

"I think the High Street is dying because of the rates, which for me are £500 a month, and the rents." But there is still a great deal of loyalty felt by traders to the shoppers of Cannock.

At The Engraving Company on Market Place, owner Mark Edwards has already had to move into bigger premises from the shoe repair shop he had next door 25 years ago. The 48-year-old runs the business with his wife Annette, 47, and sons Jamie, 25, and Dean, 24.

"People don't have as much money as they did", he says. "But it's still a really good town."

"I think the High Street has a future if it has people in it who know how to offer the services that people want. At least, I hope it does."

There are some worrying signs, but Cannock centre seems to be doing well

The town centre does have a high proportion of charity shops still trading

Melody strikes a chord with pupils

Apprentice star at school awards day

Melody Hossaini with pupils David Twohey, aged 14, and Lauren Jones, 12

SHE shot to stardom on The Apprentice as the super-confident Great Wyrley girl sure she was destined for great things.

But Melody Hossaini showed she had not forgotten her roots despite her new-found fame when she popped into her old school to hand out awards to pupils.

The 26-year-old, who came within a whisker of making the final of the show before being fired by Lord Sugar, returned to Great Wyrley Performing Arts School on Tuesday.

The founder and director of a global youth consultancy says she owes her success to her experiences at the Hall Lane school, where she struggled to settle after joining aged 13.

Delighted

The native Iranian, whose parents fled their war-torn country and settled in Sweden before moving to the UK, regularly visits Great Wyrley.

And she delighted pupils by presenting prizes for their work at their end of year awards ceremony, taking time out from a house move from Leicester to Warwickshire.

Melody, speaking after presenting the awards to pupils in years seven to nine, said she was delighted to continue inspiring students at the school – as she had done when she attended.

"I used to stand up in assembly to speak about the UK Youth Parliament and get people to sign petitions," she said. "I was teased about that by some people – although now they tell me they think I am doing great work – as well as my clothes and trainers but I was hugely focused and I didn't let it distract me."

The Apprentice winner was 31-year-old inventor Tom Pellereau, who won a £250,000 business partnership with Lord Sugar.

Money waste claim on new dance DVD

A FREE dance DVD has been produced to reduce obesity in Cannock.

The DVD has been partly funded by the taxpayer but the move was described as 'a silly waste of money'.

Cannock Chase Council has worked in partnership with other groups to produce the disc. The authority teamed up with the Cannock Chase Commissioning Consortium and South Staffordshire Primary Care Trust, who have shared the cost, to make the Doorstep Dance DVD.

It features routines and footage from local dance instructors. It cost £2,000 to put together.

John O'Connell, a spokesman for the Taxpayers' Alliance, said: "It's silly that the council thinks it must involve itself in schemes like this. Schools, youth clubs and parents already encourage children to undertake physical exercise.

"It has to get its priorities in order if it is to meaningfully reduce spending and ease the burden on taxpayers."

In April, the council discussed ways to tackle the town's worrying premature deaths.

Obesity

Life expectancy in the district is lower than the average for England in eight out of 15 wards, due to smoking-related deaths and obesity.

The gap between the ward with the lowest and highest life expectancy in Cannock is seven years for men and nine years for women.

Cannock Chase has the highest mortality rate in Staffordshire, with the county's rate itself higher than England's average.

On the DVD there are step-by-step beginners' routines including a disco routine from Stars Academy, a line-dancing routine from Danceaway Dance Academy, a Street Dance routine from Sundance School of Dance and a Zumba routine.

The DVD was filmed at dance classes across the district. It includes interviews with instructors and some of the people that attend the classes.

Councillor Muriel Davis, Cannock Chase Council's health and wellbeing leader, said: "Dance is a fun way to get fit and healthy. The DVD helps to break down the barriers about attending a class, by getting to know the steps and the people that go."

Kelly's bouncing after weight loss

New charity base is opened by MP

CANNOCK Chase MP Aidan Burley opened the new head office of a charity. Dog Aid (Assistance in Disability) is now based at the CVS building in Arthur Street, Chadsmoor.

The charity helps disabled people to train their pet dogs to assist them. Until the start of this year all administration had been dealt with by volunteers from their own homes.

Secretary Erica Bennett said: "As the charity is continuing to grow it was deemed to be necessary to find an office base from which to work."

Erica said training, which could take up to two years to complete, was designed to meet the needs of disabled people. The charity is hoping the opening of the office will help the charity recruit more supporters and fundraisers. Donations can be made through www.dogaaid.org.uk

A BURNTWOOD woman has turned from pupil to master after losing five stone and leading her own fitness class.

Kelly Mason, aged 29, began losing weight in January 2009 and slimmed from a size 22 to a size 10. She now weighs 10 stone and runs the Boogie Bounce class she used to attend.

"Two years I would not have had the confidence to stand up in front of people and teach a fitness class - I can't believe the difference," she said.

Classes, which cost are £4m are held at Queen's Croft Community School, Birmingham Road, Lichfield every Monday and Thursday at 6pm and 7pm and at Burntwood Memorial Hall, Rugeley Road, on Tuesday at 6.30pm and Wednesday at 6 and 7pm. Visit www.boogiebounce.co.uk

Police chief's vow after dealers jailed

Students get ready for their end of year showcase fashion show

End of year showcase

STUDENTS with a flair for fashion will provide one of the highlights of an end of year showcase.

Around 70 design and technology students will be showing off their skills from 5-8pm on July 28. It is the first time Cannock Chase High School in Hednesford Road has staged such an extensive exhibition of creative talents. Among the activities will be a Most Original Pizza Challenge and a cook-off between students, teachers and parents.

Visitors will enter via a red carpet with a free drink and cake made by students on arrival.

A POLICE chief has told of his force's determination to bring drug dealers to justice after three men were jailed for trafficking and black-mail offences.

Detective Superintendent Neil Hemmings, of the Staffordshire Police major investigation department, spoke out after David Newton, aged 38, Dean Tunncliffe, 37, and Steven Kneller, 33, were jailed.

The case involved a kilogram of cannabis which allegedly went missing from an outhouse at the home in Longdon, near Rugeley of 31-year-old garage mechanic Alex Sutcliffe.

"This was a very thorough and detailed investigation targeted at bringing to justice the members of a small, organised crime group," said DS Hemmings. "This case should send out a clear message to those who deal in drugs."

Tunncliffe and Newton threatened to "put a bullet" into fellow conspirator Sutcliffe whom they blamed for losing the cannabis, a judge at Stafford crown court heard.

Sutcliffe claimed the outhouse was broken into and the drugs stolen but his co-conspirators blamed him and demanded £10,000 with menaces from him.

Deadline

In January this year they turned up at Sutcliffe's home, together with another defendant, Steven Kneller, and Sutcliffe got into their car.

Threats were made to tell Sutcliffe's parents about his drug offences, followed up with phone calls and the taking of his toolbox worth £8,500.

Tunncliffe also made a call to Sutcliffe, which was answered by his partner. Sutcliffe was given a deadline to deliver the cash to Newton's house. He didn't show up and his father later discovered his Mercedes had been damaged.

Armed police were keeping surveillance and arrested Newton and Tunncliffe the same day. Newton initially came quietly but then became aggressive and an armed officer drew his tazer. Kneller was arrested the following day.

Newton, of Phoenix Close, Rugeley admitted blackmail, conspiracy to supply and possessing a firearm. He was jailed for a total of five years. Tunncliffe, of Lakeland Court, Hednesford, admitted blackmail and conspiracy to supply and was jailed for 30 months. Kneller, of Glendene Road, Hednesford admitted blackmail and got 12 months.

Sutcliffe has admitted conspiracy to supply cannabis and will be dealt with at a later date.

Ruth Dewis and Pauline Roberts are looking for homes for Carly, Toby and Charlie

Dogs in need of a home

A DOG loving duo from Rugeley, who help find dogs new homes, are searching for owners to take in three more four-legged friends.

Pauline Roberts and Ruth Dewis have rehoused more than 10 dogs over the past year and The Chronicle has helped them relocate four.

They are now looking for two families to care for terrier crosses Toby, aged 10, Carly, six and 18-month-old Labrador/collie cross Charlie.

Ruth said: "We have been searching for a suitable home for these two since last November and we hope once again The Chronicle will be able to help us."

"Because Toby and Carly are slightly older, people aren't so willing to take them in but they are both great dogs and would fit nicely into a family home."

Charlie is very excitable and would fit into a family home with other dogs.

Anyone interested should call Ruth on 07900 909993 or Pauline on 07971 817877.

Odd-job man stole £4,000 from pub safe

AN ODD-JOB man stole more than £4,000 from the safe of a Rugeley pub where he worked - before being caught after his DNA was discovered on a milk carton.

Joshua Howells raided The Vine, in Sheepfair, after stealing the keys from landlord Oliver Westwood, Stafford Crown Court heard.

The part-time odd-job man targeted the pub several times during the night in May, taking smaller quantities of money each time and eventually amassing between £4,000 and £5,000.

The set of keys also gave him access to a block of flats in Bow Street. He then climbed through a kitchen window to steal £15.

He also burgled a workshop on the top floor of the building, taking a ratchet set, and was also spotted trying to burgle another flat by putting a ladder up against the wall. Police were called and searched the flat, and tests later found Howells' DNA on a milk carton, leading to his arrest.

The 20-year-old, of Horsefair, Rugeley, was sent to youth custody for two years after admitting three charges of burglary, one of attempted burglary and one of theft.

He also asked for three offences of theft, four of vehicle taking and one more burglary to be considered.

Judge Simon Tonking told him: "You took advantage of spotting the keys in the Vine, a pub you knew well because you worked there, and targeted the safe. £4,000 to £5,000 is a lot of money."

Majority

Mr Neil Gerrity, defending, said the landlord had initially reported only £340 missing from the safe.

Howells had admitted taking the cash and owned up to the other offences.

"A lot of the time he found himself out on the street. The majority of the offences were to fund food and clothing," he added.

Group gets police tour

A GROUP of young people went behind the scenes at Rugeley police station to help raise their profile. Eight members of Voice - the Cannock Chase District Youth Forum - were taken round by neighbourhood officer Pc Wayne Moreton.

Voice is a Staffordshire Young People's Service projects formed to get young people more involved in community life and voluntary work. It meets at Rugeley Youth Centre. Their initiatives include cleaning graffiti off the centre.

Wow! Play centre unveils toddler area

A NEW area for young children has been opened at an indoor soft play centre in Rugeley in time for the summer holidays.

The Wow! Castle of Fun was opened at Canal View off Wheelhouse Road, Towers Business Park, two years ago.

Now owner Joanna Rigby has added the toddlers area to widen the range of activities.

The Wow! Castle of Fun centre already offers a giant play frame with slides, tunnels, ladders, rope bridges and ball pools.

The venue, which is suitable for children up to 10-years-old, is also available to hire for parties and special events.

Creche

The cost of an hour's play is £2.50 per child. There is a coffee shop for parents to use while the children play.

In addition, a ladies-only gym is available for mothers to use while children can attend creche sessions supervised by qualified nursery nurses.

An after school club runs during term time and parent and toddler groups run Tuesday to Thursday.

Parent can find out more by calling the team on 01889 578877 or visiting the website www.wowkidz.co.uk

Offer extended after instructor hears from family Second learner gets free driving lessons

A DRIVING instructor has extended the offer of free lessons in memory of a Rugeley man who died in an accident.

Helen Sadler, aged 39, who runs the Drive with Direction Driving School, offered to put one person through driving lessons in memory of Ashley Burton, of Breton Road, who died in February 2010.

Ashley was involved in a car accident at Cannock's Orbital ring road and Helen is a friend of the 22-year-old crash victim's family.

Ashley's mother Judith read through scores of letters to decide who to offer the lessons to.

She settled on Ross Crompton, a 20-year-old from Dudley, who almost died three years ago following complications from a burst appendix.

Helen will pay for all of Ross's lessons, but his parents will still have to pay for the theory and main test.

Now, after hearing from another family in need and wanting to help, Helen has opted to teach for free Willenhall teenager Christopher Dawes.

He suffers with attention deficit hyperactivity disorder.

His mother, Deborah Dawes, said: "If Christopher needed to get somewhere - he goes to the gym once a week, approximately four to five miles away - he will walk because he will not sit next to a stranger on a bus."

Helen will be offering the Ashley Burton Memorial again next year.

New group hoping to rekindle spirit

A NEW group in Etching Hill hopes to recharge community spirit in the area.

Friends of Etching Hill are a group of volunteers passionate about caring for and preserving the ancient Etching Hill and playing fields.

They work together with the Etching Hill Trustees to keep the area clean and accessible, promote the area's history and wildlife, encourage new visitors and seek funding and support.

They also hope to bring people together by organising social events for the whole community.

Etching Hill and playing fields are situated on the outskirts of Rugeley within the boundaries of Cannock Chase's Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The hill is a Grade 1A County Site of Biological Importance and is a designated Regionally Important Geological and Geomorphological Site (RIGS).

The group has already taken part in a community litter pick on the hill which was a huge success.

The next meeting is on Thursday July 28 at 8pm at Etching Hill Church Hall. For details call 07792814607.

On wing and prayer for debut solo flight

A SKY HIGH Rugeley school pupil is on cloud nine after launching his very first solo flight.

After just 12 lessons Thomas Turner, aged 17, took to the skies in a plane on his own for the first time and fulfilled a lifelong ambition in the process.

Thomas, a former head boy at Hagley Park Sports College who currently studies at Aelfgar Rugeley College, has been fascinated by planes and flying since he was six years old.

The teenager said he hoped to make his hobby into a career and become a commercial pilot.

Penny

"Every penny I earn from my part time job goes on my flying lessons," he said.

"I didn't have much time to think about my first solo flight."

"After a normal lesson we parked up the plane, did the usual checks then the instructor got out and said off you go."

Thomas added he was hopeful of getting his Private Pilot License before going to university next year.

AGM delegates are told of geriatric care

AT THE July 1 meeting, chairman Doreen Archer invited Ann Pilsbury to report back from the TWG AGM.

Ann was one of the delegates and observers at the AGM in Birmingham along with members from all over the country – some from as far afield as Scotland and Northern Ireland.

Patron The Princess Royal was also present to listen to speakers about geriatric care.

Zoe Worker, geriatric consultant in Birmingham and Janet Davies from the Royal College of Nursing spoke. They also listened to worries from TWG members who agreed that nurses should get back to basics when giving TLC in establishments.

Chris Price from payment council, concerning cheques was another speaker who explained there would be no change until 2016. There was entertainment from Holly Wood who gave renditions of Abba, Tina Turner and Celine

HEDNESFORD 'A' TOWNSWOMEN

Dion. Locally, the month's speaker was Barbara Smallman who talked about 'Living in a Corner Shop'.

She reminded members of the many and varied items sold in corner shops in the 40s and 50s. The little corner shops provided a vital amenity before supermarkets came along. They also provided a social centre for gossips and local news.

Fifteen members had a good meal at the Bridge House Hotel near Penkridge.

The July 20 lunch was set to be at the Orbital, near Sainsbury's. There will be no lunch club in August because of the annual seaside trip, this time to Southport.

Another trip is planned to Bourton on the Water and the Cotswolds in the autumn.

Meetings take place at St Peter's Church Hall on the second Monday of each month at 2pm. Enquiries can be made with the chairman Doreen Archer on 01543 877987.

More recognition as first year ends

CANNOCK Lions Club has reached the end of its first year and is getting more recognition as time goes on.

The club is proud of what it has achieved. There has been a visit from Past District Governor Bill Bowen and President Dave Quick from Oswestry Lions who presented a table top banner.

The British Legion is celebrating its 90th Anniversary and Cannock had a fundraising social, with the proceeds donated to the Legion.

The Lions donated to the Donna Louise Trust, while the new Staffordshire Cares scheme invited the club to be involved in its exhibition in which Messages in a Bottle were distributed. Members also competed in the Zone Challenge which was a treasure hunt around Lichfield. Lion Doug Smith will be our next President from beginning of July, taking over from Thelma Ward.

The club wishes to thank Thelma and also to wish him best of luck to Doug in his role as leader.

The Lions would like to thank everyone who has supported them in its first year and look forward to serving the community in the future.

For more about Cannock Lions Club checkout the Facebook page, or via the website clubhouse.org/sites/cannock/ www.e-cannock.org Or call Beverley on 07764 202842.

CANNOCK SOROPTIMISTS

Trust director gives candid account of patient experience

CANNOCK Soroptimists were delighted to hear a good news story about Stafford and Cannock Hospitals from their speaker Julie Hendry, director of patient experience for the Mid Staffs Hospitals' Foundation Trust.

Julie spoke candidly, she didn't try to cover anything up and began by giving sincere apologies to anyone who may have had a bad or traumatic experience at Stafford Hospital.

Julie has been a nurse for 34 years and in 2009 was asked to join the team at Stafford for three months – she now holds a permanent position.

Things she has been responsible for are concerned mainly with basic patient care. Every two hours patients have to be asked questions relating to their comfort.

Actions must follow the responses and the results have to be recorded on the patient chart. She said the Trust believes it is starting to make a real difference and that public confidence is returning.

Complaints received over the period when the hospital was in turmoil are still being handled – and with honesty and sensitivity, she said.

Feelings

Complainants have been asked if they will allow their story to be used for 'In Your Shoes' training events with staff – which enables them to be far more understanding of and empathetic towards patient needs and feelings.

Any complaints received now by the Trust are about communication, a common cause of complaint in all hospitals.

Communication and attitude are other areas Julie reported on. The Trust is working with the Patients Association to work closely with the local community and through this are intending to provide Patient Advocates who can act for patients during any complaint.

They also wish to establish Expert Panels, to go through complaint responses.

Although the hospital has moved a long way in the right direction, Julie was clear they don't wish to begin to celebrate their progress just yet, out of respect for the families who have suffered through a lack of care.

Cannock Soroptimists had the opportunity for an open discussion with Julie and were impressed with her honesty, dedication and enthusiasm to make sure patient care is of the highest standard possible.

Stormseal fitted our windows over 20 years ago, since moving we have had a conservatory and a full house of windows and recommended them to all our friends and family Gittings of Dudley

Thank you to your office staff who co-ordinated everything perfectly

Mr and Mrs Simmons of Walsall

The way you and your company dealt with me from start to finish has beyond doubt more than met my requirements and given me total satisfaction.

I am very impressed.
Mr Hemmings of Coventry

I was recommended to the company 10 years ago and recently had a conservatory fitted.

I am over the moon with the quality and service.
Miss Rae of Stafford

I am delighted with my conservatory and would highly recommend your firm.

Scholars' temporary stand to start season

Signed guitar on offer at pub's raffle

A GUITAR signed by members of American heavy metal legends Metallica is being raffled when one of their tribute bands plays in Cannock.

Metallica have been booked to play at the Fern and Fallow in Stafford Road on July 29 at 9pm.

Licencee Wayne Burford, a rock fan himself who has been at the pub since October, said he had bought the Encore Stratocaster for £250.

He is raffling it on the night with 10 per cent of the proceeds to go to charity Help for Heroes.

"The guitar is authenticated as having been signed by Metallica on the scratch plate." The pub will be open from 12 noon on the day of the gig with the tickets on sale for £1.

There will also be a £1 entry fee for the show by the band whose members come from London and Bristol. Tickets are on sale in advance.

Licencee Wayne Burford with the special signed guitar

A TEMPORARY stand is to be put in place at Chasetown's Scholars ground in time for the start of the new football season.

The new £1 million stand that is to be built will not be completed until March next year.

The club had originally hoped it might be open in time for the start of the new Evo-Stik League premier division season on August 13. The board has decided to get a 250-seat temporary covered stand put up in time for the first league game at home to Whitby Town on the opening day.

Supporters club secretary Trevor Youngman said fans were totally behind the decisions made by the management.

"It would have been nice to have had the new stand ready for the new season, but that has not been possible," he said. "It won't be a problem at all."

Construction

Work has begun on preparing the ground and a number of buildings on site have been relocated to make way for the construction project. The club got permission for the stand in July last year, but work could not have been done before last season.

The Scholars had to go back to the drawing board after original plans were rejected by Lichfield District Council in 2009 because they could have had an adverse impact on a nearby bypass. The club, founded in 1954 as Chase Terrace Old Scholars, needs the stand if it is to make progress up the non-league ladder.

Chasetown is seeking local businesses to sponsor the football club's pre-season home friendly fixtures against Stoke City on July 23, Tamworth on July 28 and Mansfield Town on August 6.

Anyone interested in being a sponsor for these three fixtures can contact Steve Maden on 07969 884247.

Chaos after car accident

TRAFFIC was caught up in tailbacks after an accident at a busy island in Cannock. A blue BMW collided with a lamp post and the central reservation at Orbital Way, holding up drivers on the A460 Eastern Way and Voyager Drive. Paramedics were called to the scene just before 8.30am on Monday (July 18) but the BMW driver did not need any medical treatment.

£5.8m plans for site of former sofa store

Family fun day at museum

STORYTELLING, a bouncy castle, and Punch and Judy will be among the attractions at a family fun day in South Staffordshire later this month.

The Museum of Cannock Chase will host an event to mark its annual family day and National Play Day on July 31.

The event will run from noon to 4pm at the Valley Road venue and it will also include face painting, balloon modelling and crafts.

AROUND 30 jobs are to be created in Cannock if planning permission for two new out of town shopping stores are approved by the council.

Plans have been sent to Cannock Chase Council to drastically transform the former Exclusive Leather Sofas showroom on the two acre site at Longford Island, where the A5 Watling Street meets the A460 Wolverhampton Road.

Metric Property Investments, which specialises in retail assets, wants to demolish the former building and erect a new retail space which would be divided between DFS and another, as yet unknown, firm.

DFS has already announced plans to invest £5.8 million in the redevelopment.

The furniture company already has a store a stone's throw away on the Linkway Retail Park which sits on the other side of Longford Island.

Gleaming

Mick Haragdon, project manager for new stores at DFS, said staff from the Cannock store will be relocated to the new, bigger, 17,000 sq ft store.

He said: "The current Cannock store has been there a long time and the company is keen to move in to an all gleaming premises."

If planning permission is given, construction is expected to start in summer next year with handover to DFS in October for a Christmas 2012 opening.

Julie's in the saddle with national title

Firefighter Julie Cooper from Cheslyn Hay who won the national 500m cycling time trials in Wales

A FIREFIGHTER has overcome a two-year battle with breast cancer to become a UK cycling champion.

Julie Cooper, from Cheslyn Hay, won the Masters National Track Championship in her age group when the event was staged in Wales.

The mother-of-two, former watch commander at Bloxwich and now based at the West Midlands Fire Service training centre at Smethwick, said: "My boys are very proud, I'm still in shock."

Julie was diagnosed with an aggressive form of cancer in 2006. The 41-year-old took up biking after her sons, seven-year-old Joe and David, aged nine, joined Lichfield City Cycling Club.

"I decided to get a bike and keep up with them, and also so I wouldn't feel guilty about not being with them," she said.

Julie, of Spring Meadow, Cheslyn Hay, says the dark days now seem a long way behind her. At the time, I thought my whole world had ended," she said.

Launch of new bus route to city centre

A NEW bus service that will reduce journey times between Cannock and Birmingham city centre by a third will start operating on Monday (July 25).

Arriva Midlands is introducing its X31 service, which take just 55 minutes to complete the journey.

The new route will offer an hourly service between Cannock Bus Station and Birmingham Carrs Lane.

It will travel along the M6 to Birmingham after stopping off in Great Wyrley, Cheslyn Hay, New Invention, Short Heath, Ashmore Lake, Shepwell Green and Bentley.

Teenagers will be able to make the journey for just £1 using the Your Staffordshire discount card.

Public

Adult singles from Cannock, Great Wyrley or Cheslyn Hay will cost £3.60. A monthly ticket, introduced exclusively for the new route, is available for £25.

Arriva Midlands spokesman Keith Myatt said the service would make a huge difference to commuters.

"Feedback received from members of the public during consultation sessions highlighted the need for a new link from parts of Staffordshire, Walsall and Wolverhampton direct to Birmingham," he said.

"We're pleased to be able to deliver X31 to meet those needs, and we're sure our fares will suit everyone."

Timetable leaflets will be in libraries, tourist information centres, Centro office in Birmingham city centre and New Street station, along with Wolverhampton and Walsall bus stations.

To apply for a Your Staffordshire card call 0300 111 8000.

The service is being launched tomorrow (Friday) and Arriva is searching for a star commuter to become a VIP for the day.

One lucky commuter will get the chance to receive star treatment for the day, taking part in photo shoots, receiving a bottle of champagne and getting a year's free travel.

To enter, email your contact details and why you should be chosen to cannock@arriva.co.uk

Lewis Slade, Cavan Cockayne and Imogen Turley, all aged seven, collect coins in their homemade moneyboxes

Charity cash collected

PUPILS at a Heath Hayes school have been collecting money for a charity by creating their own moneyboxes and then filling them with change.

Year 2 pupils at Five Ways Primary School in Langholm Drive chose to help the Newlife Foundation.

Their teacher Deborah Horton got the pupils to bring in small containers which they painted and decorated. The youngsters took them home and collected small change from family and friends. When they brought them back to school, the money was counted up and totalled £160. Newlife representatives visited the school to receive the money and give a talk on the charity's work.

Investment hopes for laser firm

A LASER cutting company in Cannock is hoping to see a rise in business after investing more than £1 million in new equipment and computer software.

Bosses at Laser Process Ltd, based at Keys Park, believe two new cutting machines, along with a new online computer system, will result in a 35 per cent rise in trade at the company.

The system, which took four months to create, allows customers to get quotes and place orders 24 hours a day.

Managing director Dave Lindsey said: "This is playing catch-up really, but we estimate that it should result in around a 35 per cent increase in capacity."

The company employs 40 people and has an annual turnover of £5million.

Knitters square up at event

KNITTERS united to mark 120 years of worship at a Staffordshire church.

Parishioners at St Chad's Church, Chadsmore, Cannock, held a sponsored event at a coffee morning and bric-a-brac sale. Members began their knit-in during the fair with the aim of creating 120 woolly squares which will then be sewn together to create a large display incorporating a St Chad's Cross.

Five parishioners have undertaken the task which they expect to complete over the next few weeks.

Church member John Searle, of Stafford Lane, Hednesford, said: "A chart will be put up at the church to let everyone know what progress they are making." The fair included stalls and a raffle and raised around £80.

Haulier expands as business improves

A FAMILY haulier has doubled the size of its base at Burntwood Business Park to meet growing demand and expand the business.

Partridge Transport Services has just taken on five new staff and will be looking to add further drivers to cover demand.

The firm has just moved to the Paget 12 building in Zone 3 on the estate. It is the second time the haulier has expanded on the site.

The company, which employs around 28 people, outgrew its 16,000 sq ft unit at Burntwood. It provides transport services to customers including manufacturers, distributors and freight forwarders and has added to its services by joining the Fortec Pallet Network.

Managing director Neil Partridge said: "We now offer storage and warehousing facilities, pick and pack, and can deliver or collect goods either on our own vehicles or through the pallet network. We also have the addition of a dock leveller enabling us to offer facilities to load and unload containers."

"We have taken on two new staff members and three new drivers to cover our immediate needs but we will need to take on more staff and drivers in the near future to cover demand."

"The position of our unit at Burntwood is ideal because of its central position within the Midlands. The future is looking positive; with the new building we can develop new work and still look after our existing customers."

The business has certainly grown since it started in 1993 from an office in the family's garage with Neil as a sole trader employing a few drivers and using sub-contractors for overspill work. Neil, the son of a HGV driver, remains a hands-on boss and still enjoys jumping on a fork-lift or into a truck when needed.

His wife Caroline is the company's accountant and eldest daughter Rebecca is a transport manager with particular responsibility for the Pallet Network side of the business.

Agency sets out to trap the love cheats

A BLACK Country businesswoman has made it her mission to help catch love cheats after setting up a detective agency devoted to answering that most dreaded of questions: Am I being cheated on?

Bina Tah, a 49-year-old from Walsall, helps ordinary men and women across the region, and even the odd celebrity along the way through her Birmingham-based agency Check Mate.

"There is definitely a need for this," says the mother-of-three. "It's just about ordinary men and women who want to confirm or allay their fears and get closure on their suspicions."

"We're not there to tell people what they should do, we're just there to provide the facts and the final piece of the jigsaw."

People who suspect their other half of playing away call up for a chat and discuss their fears.

Picture

Ms Tah and her team of investigating operatives build up a picture of the situation. They find out what the suspect or "subject" is like, why it is thought they are having an affair and what type of man and or woman they may go for.

The case is then looked into by some of the company's highly-trained investigations operatives.

"There are two types of cheats, the type that goes out and picks up somebody on a Saturday night, and the cheat in an on-going relationship," said investigations operative Matthew Jones.

"There's lots of information you can use to get an idea whether someone may be cheating. But some people are professional cheats."

Subjects can be tracked through covert surveillance.

Vehicle tracking devices are also used to track a subject's movements.

There is the button hole camera, while honeypots are also a common tool.

Check Mate has around 46 of all ages at its disposal, with different hair colours, and of all shapes and sizes.

Beryl Brookes and Irene Morris open the new footpath from Chase Academy to Asda

Path to better security

A NEW footpath which staff hope will improve security at a Cannock school has now officially opened.

Independent school Chase Academy has spent £130,000 on the path, linking St John's Road to the Asda store off Avon Road. The footpath has been built to replace an existing one, on unclaimed land, which currently divides the school site.

Chase Academy's principal Mark Ellse said the change would make the building more secure at night.

Two residents, Beryl Brookes and Irene Morris, wrote to the council supporting the plans. As a thank you Mr Ellse, aged 57, invited them to have the honour of officially opening the revised route, which got rid of the the intimidating "twists and turns" of the previous path.

Sam Wills, aka the Boy With Tape on His Face

Tape boy proves the gaffer of mime artists

The Boy With Tape on His Face, Lichfield Garrick Studio
WHAT do you get if you cross Marcel Marceau with Mr Bean? The Boy With Tape on His Face.

And, if you thought the name was weird, you should see the act. Actions speak louder than words they say, and the mime artist proved the case in this Lichfield Festival show.

New Zealand-born performer Sam Wills is the man behind the mask and he already has appearances at the Edinburgh Festival and Jason Manford's Comedy Rocks behind him.

He got off to a surreal start, sitting there in silence, with said tape on face, while the audience filtered through.

What followed was an hour of laugh out loud comedy. Using a variety of props from his satchel of his tricks, he pulled off a number of comic routines, mainly set to music and making full use of audience members, who it has to be said, were as much the stars of the show as he was.

The Louis Armstrong and Lady In Red gags were particularly memorable, though a word of warning if you do go and see him. Don't sit where he can pick you out.

Barbershop Boys to make the grade

ACCLAIMED quarter The Great British Barbershop Boys have penned in a Cannock date on their forthcoming tour.

After television appearances on Day-break, This Morning, The Wright Stuff and the Alan Titchmarsh Show, the group has been brought to a brand new audience.

They released their debut album - Christmas Time - in December and have gone on to perform throughout Europe. Live appearances have included one at St Paul's Cathedral for the BBC2 Young Chorister of the Year, Wembley Stadium to open a UK rugby match and at Harrods for the opening of the store's gentlemen's lounge.

Title

They have also performed at various charity events for the Roald Dahl Foundation, The Salvation Army at the Royal Albert Hall, Nordoff Robbins Carol Service and Harrod's Dickensian Ball for Great Ormond Street Hospital.

Members Alan Hughes (tenor), Zac Booles (lead), Joe Knight (baritone) and Duncan Blackaby (bass) were originally in the National Barbershop Youth Chorus.

Within nine months of forming the boys were made British Quartet champions and by October 2008 they also claimed the inaugural British Collegiate Quartet title.

The Great British Barbershop Boys will be at the Cannock Prince of Wales Centre on Friday September 9.

Tickets, which cost £15, can be booked by calling the box office on 01543 578762.

Nostalgic trip back to the 50s and 60s

MUSICAL stars of the 1950s and 60s are coming together for a show-stopping performance in Cannock this weekend.

C'mon Everybody showcases the hits of Eddie Cochran, Chuck Berry, Buddy Holly, Jerry Lee Lewis, Bill Haley, Brenda Lee and Duane Eddy.

Chris Fender Black and Blackcat's Rock 'n' Roll Show takes place at the Cannock Prince of Wales Theatre on Saturday (July 23) from 7.30pm and tickets are £14 and £12. Call 01543 578762 to book.

Rock band tributes take stage at Tack

TWO rock tribute acts take to the stage at a Hednesford pub this weekend.

Twin Lizzy, who claim to be the most authentic sounding Thin Lizzy tribute act around, appear at The Tackeroo, in Bracken Close, tomorrow night (Friday).

The following night Green Day tribute Green Bay will be playing the whole of the Dookie album.

The gigs kick off at 9pm and admission for both is £5. For more details call the Tackeroo on 01543 423124.

The Bill star to put his Stamp on city's panto

A FORMER star of The Bill is set to put his very own stamp on a Lichfield theatre's festive production this year.

Graham Cole, who played Tony Stamp in the ITV police series, will be Ebenezer Scrooge in the production of a Christmas Carol, which has been designed especially for the Lichfield Garrick by the team which created the record-breaking production of Peter Pan last year.

Adrian Jackson, Lichfield Garrick's artistic and executive director, said: "A Christmas Carol has something for the whole family to enjoy, with colourful puppets, spectacular scenery, sparkling costumes, a magical musical score, and for the first time at the Lichfield Garrick, amazing skating scenes on ice. And, if that's not enough, we guarantee a snow-fall during every performance."

"We're thrilled to be welcoming theatre and television star, Graham Cole to the role of Ebenezer Scrooge."

"Most people will remember Graham from his 21 years as Pc Tony Stamp in The Bill, but he also has many years of theatre under his belt."

Humble

The 59-year-old actor had humble beginnings with bit-parts in science fiction series Blakes 7 and Only Fools and Horses.

London-born Graham also had small roles in Doctor Who during the early 1980s and he played a junior doctor in Casualty in 1986. He joined The Bill's cast in 1984, the year the show started.

Graham also lent his voice to the cult Sky One show Police Stop!

The Bill last appeared on screens in August 2010 and before its demise was the longest-running police television series in the UK and was among the longest-running of any British TV programmes. Around 4.4 million viewers tuned in for the final show.

Tickets for A Christmas Carol, which will run from December 1 until January 2, are already on sale with a variety of schools, matinee and evening performances.

To book tickets, contact Lichfield Garrick box office on 01543 412121, or visit www.lichfieldgarrick.com

AN open day is being held this Saturday between midday and 2pm at this property in Wesley Avenue, Cheslyn Hay – which has a guide price of £200,000.

The three-bedroom semi-detached house is being sold with land which has planning permission for a three-bedroom detached property.

The entrance door leads into an entrance hallway, with the lounge measuring 18ft 1in by 1ft 10in with electric fire, windows to front and rear and door to rear garden.

Integrated

The kitchen, 11ft 6in by 8ft 10in, has a range of wall and base units, complementary work surfaces, sink and drainer with splashback tiling, integrated oven and electric hob, space for appliances, inset fireplace and built-in storage cupboard. On the first floor there are three bedrooms and a bathroom with panelled bath, WC and wash hand basin.

Outside the front garden is mainly laid to lawn, with shrubs and flowers, while the side garden has planning permission for the new detached property.

The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn.

Call the estate agent D B Roberts at 01543 46996 for more details.

This traditional semi-detached property has an open day this Saturday, from 12pm-2pm

Households going on 'energy budget' for a national survey

THE average Wolverhampton family wakes up in their semi-detached at 6.45, owns a silver Ford Focus and has spaghetti bolognese on a Monday evening, a study reveals.

The 'unofficial census' also reveals a typical family from Wolverhampton speaks to just three of their neighbours, enjoys a family outing just once a month, spends £109 a week on food & drink and has everyone curled up in bed at 10.38pm every night.

The study of 2,000 families also shows that the typical family usually sits down for dinner at 6.08pm four nights a week but breakfast together only twice.

The study, carried out by the home energy management service AlertMe, also found that Wolverhampton families are creatures of habit, often resorting to the same repertoire of meals every week.

On Mondays, families opt for spaghetti bolognese (63 per cent), Tuesdays tend to be pasta bake (62 per cent), Mums dish up chicken pie on Wednesdays (25 per cent) and Thursdays is cottage pie night (25 per cent).

Take-away fish and chips (37 per cent) are still a firm family favourite for Fridays according to the findings.

After dinner our best form of family entertainment is watching TV (75 per cent) and our 'must watch' show is Dr Who. But it's not just Dr Who that we head to the sofa for. The average Wolverhampton family has the TV switched 'on' for a staggering nine hours a day.

The research also shows that while parents spend an evening with friends twice a month, almost a third (38 per cent) spend no quality time together as a couple each month.

Trips to the cinema, DVDs and games for the children stack up to £15.44 each week, which adds to the grocery shop which comes in at £91.75. A further £17.31 each week is spent on alcohol.

And making sure that some money is saved (or found) for holidays is also very important too. Mr and Mrs 'average' take their children away on two breaks every year – one in the UK and one in Spain.

Testing

Bills are a constant headache, with 38 per cent of families shocked at the size of their household outgoings.

Mary Turner, CEO of AlertMe, says: "At AlertMe we are passionate about helping families to take control and save money, so we carried out this study to know how they were spending it in the first place "Without a doubt these have been testing times for everyone – especially families and the recession has been a wake-up call, but this study shows that people are really trying to spend within their means.

"However in some areas, such as household energy, they don't even have the visibility to help them manage their bills."

Research was carried out by AlertMe, as part of an initiative to recruit a national panel of families that will carry out a series of household money-saving experiments. The findings will then be shared so other families can review how they might cut down on their household bills. Families interested in registering should visit www.alertme.com/the-panel

AlertMe claims that its Home Energy Management system – which lets people visualize their energy usage in real time, determine its cost and make the best use of energy – can help achieve energy bill savings of around 15-25 per cent, without sacrificing comfort. It works by identifying the home appliances guzzling energy as well as the hidden 'base load' of energy the home is consuming even when we are asleep or away.

AlertMe is searching for 100 households from across the country to participate in an experiment that will create a picture of today's Britain. The aim is to capture people's concerns and lifestyles and also help them to save money by controlling their energy usage.

All panel members will be asked to take part in three to four challenges during the year. Challenges will last about a week and be fun and easy to carry out around people's daily lives. For example, our first challenge will ask you to live on an energy budget.

Families interested in signing-up should register at the website www.alertme.com/the-panel

Large rear gardens are a major selling point of this property in Cheslyn Hay

£84,995 for traditional two-bedroomed semi

A TRADITIONAL semi-detached house situated just a stone's throw from Cannock town centre is available with no chain for a reduced price.

Number 84 St Johns Road is being marketed by Webb's estate agents for offers in the region of £84,995.

It comprises two bedrooms, a lounge, separate dining room, gas central heating, cellar, rear garden and a carport.

The front-facing lounge has a wooden fireplace surround incorporating a gas fire and access to the dining room and cellar.

In the similarly proportioned dining room, there's a sash window at the rear of the property, an open fireplace and stairs leading to the first floor landing.

There's a range of wall and base units in the fitted kitchen, along with rolled-edge worksurfaces, a stainless steel sink and access to the verandah.

Cupboard

Upstairs, there are two bedrooms, the main facing the front with a built-in wardrobe and feature fireplace.

The rear-facing second bedroom has access to the bathroom and a storage cupboard incorporating a loft hatch.

Fitted with a suite comprising a panelled bath, pedestal wash basin and WC, the bathroom also houses an airing cupboard.

Outside, the property is set back from the road behind a brick retaining wall and wrought iron gate while the enclosed rear garden is mainly paved with a large carport and substantial metal shed.

For more information or to arrange a viewing, call 01543 468846.

Estate agent Jayman is handling the sale of this two-bed bungalow, priced £159,500

Agents advocating early inspection of two-bed bungalow

EARLY inspection is strongly recommended on 1 Norton Terrace, Norton Canes, a spacious and extended two-bedroom semi-detached bungalow.

The property – with a price guide of £159,500 – has a lounge, dining room, fitted kitchen, two double bedrooms, bathroom and beautifully maintained rear garden, plus brick built store/utility and detached garage.

The entrance hallway has doors leading to the lounge which measures 12ft 11in by 11ft 4in and has a feature fire surround, while the L-shaped dining room is 15ft 10in by 12ft 8in.

The kitchen – 10ft 11in by 8ft – is equipped with a range of wall and base units, preparation work surfaces over, sink and drainer unit with mixer tap and space for appliances.

Bedroom one is 12ft by 11ft, while the second bedroom at 12ft by 8ft 11in has mirrored sliding wardrobes.

The bathroom has a bath with electric shower over, wash hand basin and WC.

To the rear of the property is a rear garden with store currently used as a utility, and mainly laid to lawn and borders of shrubs and plants.

Contact estate agent Jayman on 01543 505566 for more information.

Jeep rides high with a retooled urban warrior

PEOPLE who don't know much about cars often call anything that's big and looks off-roadish a "jeep", which must mightily annoy the folks at Land Rover.

For the Jeep name (with a capital "J") has reached iconic status far outside the car world, up there with Hoover, Biro, Portakabin and Thermos as a generic name for an everyday item.

So, when it comes time to change a real Jeep there must be a strong temptation to just play around the edges and keep things as close to what went before as you dare.

By Ian Donaldson

So well done Jeep for going a bit further than that with your latest launch, the new Grand Cherokee.

It might look rather a lot like the old one with a bit of added style sculpted into the sides, but a lot has been going on in places you don't often look.

Actually, there's been some important action in the places you do look as well, with a lot more legroom in the back seat, a bigger boot and a new interior that might have been designed in the USA but has a properly upmarket European feel for the first time.

That extra space comes thanks to a new and larger platform that will also appear beneath some new Mercedes 4x4s in coming months, a reminder of the unhappy years when the German car giant owned Jeep and seemed puzzled about what to do with it.

Now firmly under Fiat control, the latest UK-bound Grand Cherokees have a big diesel engine built in Italy which is more powerful yet less thirsty than the engine it replaces.

The unrealistic EuroNCAP official fuel consumption test actually reckons you could beat 34 to the gallon in everyday driving, but don't buy a Grand Cherokee on that assumption.

Still, owners trading in the old model will find the new one sips less diesel and goes better too.

Lifestyle

Even so, nobody ever bought a Grand Cherokee for its economy.

Buy one and you're buying into a lifestyle that hints at distant mountains and nights spent under canvas as you conquer the great outdoors.

Most owners, of course, will spend more time in the great indoors, telling the kids to get ready for school or looking for the shopping list before they set out in the Jeep for the supermarket. Even so, you can dream.

When the youngsters are safely strapped in, or the weekly groceries piled into the shallow-ish boot (there's a full size spare wheel hiding below), you'll discover this latest Grand Cherokee makes a fine urban warrior, easily up to the potholes and speed bumps that pepper your progress.

There are two models on offer this time round, both sharing the same 177 horsepower diesel engine and automatic transmission and differing only in their fixtures and fittings.

Both look well priced at £37,796 for the Limited model and £43,995 for the posher Overland.

You won't feel short changed with the cheaper car.

Standard kit includes a versatile four-wheel drive system, big alloy wheels, dual zone automatic air conditioning, and a large touch screen to control the entertainment system (which can store more than 6,000 songs).

It also comes with parking sensors front and rear plus a rear view camera and heated seats all round.

Step up to the Overland and the big news is air suspension that lowers itself at speed (it makes the car more aerodynamic and saves a little fuel), or can be raised an extra 2.6 inches to tackle really serious off-road obstacles.

It can even be told to lower itself a bit at rest (like a camel?) to make it easier for passengers to climb aboard.

The Overland spec also includes satellite navigation, great big 20-inch alloy wheels, adaptive cruise control (which slows the car if you come up behind a dawdler), big sunroof and leather upholstery.

So you're unlikely to complain about a lack of specs; these are very well equipped cars and look seriously good value.

Road tax of £550 in the first year and £245 thereafter makes only a small dent in the value argument.

There's more good news on the move. New all-round independent suspension meant that a Limited model rode the potholes and patches of middle England's roads with a calm authority.

Even more impressively, it did so with a set of the larger wheels that come as part of a £2,000 performance pack.

Demanding

Talking of performance, this is a big car (15ft 10ins long and more than six feet wide) but it will still hit 126mph (on that unrestricted autobahn, of course) and nudge 62mph in 8.2 seconds. So it doesn't feel slow.

Even at speed the engine never raises its voice and on a modestly demanding off-road course at the press launch of the car the Grand Cherokee coped with hills and dales without so much as a hint of concern.

All in all, this is Jeep's best new car for a

Cars and bikes can share the road safely

Simple rules can keep motorcyclists and motorists accident-free

ROAD safety charity the Institute of Advanced Motorists is offering tips from Britain's top advanced driver, Peter Rodger.

This week, as we approach the season when motorcycling is at its height, he recommends how motorcyclists and drivers should share the road safely.

Car drivers

● Keep an eye out for motorcyclists. The biggest cause of accidents is failing to look properly, and this problem is exaggerated in the case of motorcycle collisions, as motorbikes are smaller, and less common than cars.

● Give them space. Don't follow too close, or drive on their nearside – they may be avoiding potholes and other surface problems which aren't such a crucial safety issue to a car driver.

● Use your mirrors so you see bikes approaching from behind. In particular check your mirrors before changing direction, especially in traffic queues.

● If a motorcyclist is trying to get past in heavy traffic, let them. Don't try and impede their progress because you are stuck.

● Give clear and early signals to allow motorcyclists and other road users time to react.

● In bad weather allow motorcyclists even more space to deal with bad surface conditions.

Motorcyclists

● Always assume that other road users may not have seen you.

● When travelling in a straight line position yourself where a car driver would be sitting. This is where other road users will be looking.

● Give drivers time to realise you are there – don't arrive so fast that you startle the driver.

● Always leave plenty of space between yourself and other traffic.

● Look well ahead to avoid needing to make sudden changes in direction for potholes etc.

● Be seen. Big blocks of bright colour are better than broken up or patterned clothing, which effectively camouflages you. And always make sure you have your headlight on.

Mr Rodger said: "Motorcyclists are at much more risk than other road users and awareness of the risks they face need to be understood, especially at junctions in towns."

"Motorcycling is a fun and convenient way of travelling, so it is important riders appreciate how to protect themselves, and car drivers learn to take a bit more care when looking out for them," he added.

Local Company Expanding Nationwide

We Want Any Car's new fleet take to the road

We Want Any Car, established in 2009 at Cannock, Staffordshire, are expanding their online car buying company through-out England and Wales.

Their new fleet of 30 vans can now be seen up and down the country, We Want Any Car have currently over 50 offices now open and aim to double this figure by the end of the year, offering excellent customer service, home visit and collection facilities.

We Want Any Car have a simple, easy to use website, where customers enter their registration number to obtain a free valuation for their car and then select the nearest office to where they live for an appointment, 7 days a week.

Pictured above are just some of the Office Managers, collecting their brand new vehicles, who are now part of the We Want Any Car group.

Area Manager Russell Greene, who is responsible for the London and M25 regions, is seen here handing over a new van to Malcolm Owen, Office Manager for Luton and Stevenage.

Operations Director Tim Clapham said: "With over 10 offices now open in the Midlands region and the amount of recommendations we were achieving, it only seemed natural to expand the business further afield. Many customers were travelling more than 80 miles to sell us their car, and so to cope with this demand new offices were opened. This in turn helps us promote our company and inform the public that there is an alternative in the car buying market."

We look forward to an exciting and busy year, with further expansions planned for 2012."

Lifeways
making better ways for living

HAVE YOU EVER FELT LIKE YOU REALLY WANT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE AT WORK?

At Lifeways Community Care we are committed to providing an excellent service to our Service Users, their families and our commissioning bodies. We aim to support people with learning or physical disabilities and complex needs to access and use community facilities, including education, employment and recreation. We are dedicated to promoting independent living through enabling the development of social, personal and domestic skills. We currently have three vacancies in the Stafford and Cannock areas:

Registered Manager

SALARY: On application

We are currently looking for a highly motivated and enthusiastic registered manager to be responsible for the day to day running of our registered service in Stafford. This is a rewarding position and the post holder will need to promote an enabling environment, ensuring high standards of professional practice whilst achieving compliance with external regulatory standards, registration and company policy. You must be keen to improve the quality of the service and facilities development and growth. You will manage a large staff team and will provide support, advice and motivation on a daily basis to ensure that the people who use our service are supported to be as independent as possible and achieve their goals. To succeed in this role you will need to have previous management experience and demonstrate availability to be person centred and solutions focused. You will have a Registered Managers Award alongside an NVQ4 in Care or Management or relevant professional qualifications. Previous experience of working with people who have a learning disability, complex needs and challenging behaviour are essential.

Support worker

SALARY: £6.75 per hour rising to £7.00 - £7.10 after successful completion of a probationary period.

We are currently looking for full time, part time and bank support workers who are highly motivated and committed to providing support that will enable individuals to achieve increasing independence within the community. In your lone support worker you will assist people with every day aspects of their lives e.g. cooking, shopping, budgeting, attending appointments, participating in social/leisure activities and personal care. You will be supporting individuals both in their own homes and in the community. We support people 24 hours a day and therefore require staff to be flexible and also have daily use of a car. The ideal candidate should have patience, enthusiasm, commitment, initiative and understanding combined with excellent communication skills. If you feel you are ready for a challenge, able to take on new challenges, and seek professional development opportunities within a growing organisation, we want to hear from you.

To apply please contact Joanne Williams at: joanne.williams@lifeways.co.uk

Mixed doubles winners Jane Hamlin and Julian Fisher

Sport on trout lakes proves a little slower

WOLVERHAMPTON AA held its midweek match on the Penkridge section of the Staffs/Worcester Canal and Dave Lloyd won with 16lbs 10oz of chub and tying for second place with 9lb 5oz were Dave McCall and Dean Ashington.

The venue continues to fish well and the club also controls a section of the canal at Wombourne that was featured in a recent article in the Angling Times highlighting the specimen club that can be caught there.

Rough Hay AC had a recent match at Brookfields Farm, Alan Gough won the match with a 31 lb 12oz bag of carp and bream second was J Mordith with 29lbs 4oz and third P Humpage with 25lbs 10oz.

Pillaton Pools in Penkridge has been enjoying good form recently with carp, bream and roach all featuring in anglers' catches.

Carp anglers have been enjoying some good sport recently with all of the Blackfords Waters producing fish, two anglers enjoyed a 11-fish haul from the Turf Pool on an overnight session, a few mid doubles have been reported from Calf Heath, and speculation surrounds a couple of big fish caught locally.

Sport on the trout lakes has been a little slower recently, which is usual for this time of year. Our advice is to take to the boats if planning a full day or if you prefer bank fishing, try the last couple of hours before sunset. The upper River Severn and River Dee offer some great sport with wild brown trout and grayling.

almost upon us we would like to hear from any fishery that is able to cater for youngsters as we get asked by many parents who are looking for safe and suitable venues that will allow the children to fish unaccompanied by an adult.

Also if your club has 'teach-ins' or a junior match section please let us know.

We have season tickets available for Izaak Walton, Stafford, Wolverhampton AA and very few left for Blackfords PAS.

Fishery owners if you would like a mention, contact us - and all you coarse, game and sea anglers out there - if you have an up-to-date 'fishy story' to report contact us with details and a picture.

If you have any interesting catches to report contact Vernon at Archline Angling on 01922 411205, call into the store or email fish@archlineangling.co.uk

Seventh defeat on bounce as luck out

CANNOCK XI 1 WAKE GREEN
PANTHERS XI 3

HOCKEY

FRESH from a week's break Cannock entered the final third of the 2011 Summer League hosting Wake Green Panthers.

A better standard of hockey was needed after their humiliation at Lichfield two weeks previous. The response captain Alex Hill wanted was produced as Cannock gave their best and created several chances in an open but goalless first half.

In the second half Cannock continued to press and Tom Hyde opened the scoring with his fourth goal of the summer campaign.

Cannock were worthy of their lead but were naive in their defending and allowed the visitors to equalise.

The game continued to be an even and open affair. However, the Panthers found the net again on another two occasions as Cannock failed to test the visiting keeper again, condemning the side to their seventh straight defeat of a luckless season to date.

There were mixed emotions for the club's two other sides as Hatherton again found another three points with a 5-2 win over Streety Exiles but Chase Park found themselves on the wrong side of a 9-1 scoreline against the skilful Khalsa, Aaron Wilkes scoring the consolation.

CANNOCK LADES A XI 4
STAFFORD POLICE LADIES XI 2

Cannock Ladies bounced back with a fine performance against strong opposition thanks to an Ellie Watton double and goals from Lauren Bradbury and Holly Turbill.

Meanwhile, Cannock Ladies 'B' XI lost 3-1 to Phoenix Blues and battled well, Beth Jennings scoring.

Players serve up finals day treat

TENNIS

THE wind and the rain couldn't stop the 2011 Lichfield Friary Club Championship Finals Day being one of the best in recent years and two players took the lion's share of the trophies.

Jane Hamlin won the Ladies Singles title beating Chris Weir 6-3, 6-4. Julian Fisher was in three finals - mens singles, mens doubles and the mixed doubles.

He won an epic Mens Singles Championships with a two and a half hour marathon against David Goss, with a superb fightback after losing the first set, finally winning 6-7, 6-3, 6-0.

The treble dream vanished for Fisher when Goss evened the honours. He and James Morris beat Fisher and Lee Marks in another excellent three set match 6-7, 6-4, 6-3 to claim the Mens Doubles. Losing singles finalist Chris Weir picked up some silverware when she and partner Tina Grant lifted the Ladies Doubles beating Ruth Moon and Hilary Ward 6-4, 4-6, 7-5.

Jane Hamlin and Julian Fisher started their Mixed doubles final against Leonie Patterson and Colin Densham at 5pm. Fisher had already played four hours of continuous tennis and with the two-hour break after singles final for Hamlin, the pair started poorly losing the first set 6-3. However, they won the second set 6-3 before taking the final set by the same scoreline, finishing just after 7pm meaning Fisher had played for more than six continuous hours and completed nine sets.

The Mixed plate competition was won by Bill Drakeley and Dot Clarke, beating Martin Stanley and Hilary Ward 7-6, 7-6.

Club chairman Achim Kreuser said "It's been one of the best club championships for years. We had a record turnout and the standard of play throughout the tournament has been excellent."

To join Lichfield Friary Tennis Club call Graham Hathaway on 01543 375175 or visit www.lichfieldfriarytennis.co.uk

Meanwhile Cannock Tennis Club is serving up a treat for players this weekend by hosting a men's open singles tournament this weekend.

Sunday's tournament (July 24) at Cannock Cricket & Hickey Club is also open to non-members. Entry fee is £3 for club members and £5 for non-members with prizes up for grabs.

A recruitment drive for the two mens' teams which play in the Wilson Staffordshire Inter-club Tennis League is currently taking place and the event will also be an opportunity for non-members to see what the club has to offer.

Spokesman Andy Richardson said: "We are hoping for a really good turnout and an enjoyable competitive day of tennis."

"There has been a good response so far and it looks like there will be a good mixture of both club members and non-members."

"If it is a success we will be looking to organise a doubles tournament at the start of September."

Players are being asked to turn up at 9.30am for the draw.

Players will be split into two groups in a round robin format with the top two in each group making it into the semi-finals and then final. The tournament should last until around 4pm.

For more information call Andy Richardson on 07866 212026.

Elliot Giles from Birchfield Harriers pips James Whitehouse to win the Lichfield Dash

Giles cuts a dash to win city sprint

ONE of the UK's top junior athletes Elliot Giles of Birchfield Harriers won a thrilling Salts Techstep Lichfield Dash in Lichfield.

The teenager just caught 2010 Dash Champion James Whitehouse also of Birchfield Harriers virtually on the line to snatch the coveted Dash Trophy.

They were the only two runners to finish within the sound of the Cathedral chimes.

Giles, aged just 16, is one of the UK's top 20 under-20 800m runners in the UK this year and big things are predicted of him.

He was full of praise for the event and how special he felt the win was for him.

He said: "Other Birchfield athletes told me about the dash and how different it was but I never dreamt just how different it was."

"The atmosphere was incredible especially on such a horrible day weatherwise, but the roar from the crowd as I came round the final bend really spurred me on to victory. Absolutely fantastic."

Dash founder and organiser of KP Events Kevin Wilson, was also delighted with Giles's victory.

"His dash win was incredible, especially after his win in the Elite Mile and a relay leg for his Birchfield team to win the relay event too, so he was a triple winner - a first in dash history and the crowd really took to him to their hearts."

"He's one to watch out for at the 2016 Olympics!"

The result in full; 1: Elliot Giles (Birchfield Harriers) 56.78; 2: James Whitehouse (Birchfield Harriers) 57.09; 3: Simon King (Tamworth AC) 59.04; 4: Ashley Wickett (Cannock and Stafford AC) 61.34; 5: Pete Dimpleby (Birchfield Harriers) 70.47; 6: Simon McNamee (Birchfield Harriers) 71.10

In the KP Fitness Junior Dash at 11am, Tamworth AC's Ellis Cross beat Cannock and Stafford AC's Billy Hicks.

Full results of all the races on the day plus video and photos have now been posted at www.kpevents.net

Lichfield Diamonds under-11

Difference in age and size no barrier

FOOTBALL

WITH no U11 tournaments taking place this summer, Lichfield Diamonds under-11 Girls have had to step up a year to get some competitive football by entering u-12 events at Uttoxeter and Barton.

The age and size difference proved no obstacle as they reached the finals in both events, unfortunately going down on penalties in the Uttoxeter final to Stoke Town and losing 1-0 in the Barton final to Hedgesford.

Diamonds are now looking for new players at all age groups from u-8 to u-16 and ladies. Call 01543 254069 for more or visit lichfielddiamonds.co.uk

NEWLY-formed Rugeley Rangers Girls under-15s are looking for players for 2011/2012 season.

An experienced goalkeeper is required along with a number of outfield players. Any interested girls must be in school year 9 or 10 from September 2011.

The team will be playing in the Staffordshire County Girls League with the home games being played at Hagley Park Sports College on a Saturday morning.

Training takes place on a Wednesdays from 7-8pm. Separate weekly goalkeeper training is also available through Rugeley Rangers FC. All coaches are FA Level 1 qualified and are CRB checked and First Aid trained.

For further details please contact manager Iain Murray on 07976 219919 or assistant manager Scott Hodges on 07960 841376.

A DOUBLE-winning side is looking to strengthen its squad and build on its success.

Chase Athletic under-12s Juniors won division one of the Lichfield & District Recreational League last season and added to that by winning the double.

Playing at under-13 level this season, they are looking to recruit at least two new players. Call Stuart Hadaway on 07866 470448.

BURNWOOD Dragons u-10s are looking for new players. Call Stuart Hadaway on 07866 470448.

LEA Hall u-13s are looking for new players. They train on Thursdays from 5.30-7pm. Call 07889 024698. The under-7s also seek new players and sponsorship.

Call Gareth Edwards on 07889 024698.

NEW players are being sought by Cannock Town u-12s Juniors. Call Jane Pearson on 07969 110090.

Olympic star is top Gunnell at event on Chase

ATHLETICS

OLYMPIC gold medalist Sally Gunnell is the star attraction for a family athletics festival on Cannock Chase this weekend.

Love Life Love Running takes place at Birches Valley, Rugeley, on Saturday and Sunday (July 23/24) and gives people the chance to try their hand at the basic elements of athletics.

Gunnell, who claimed gold in the 400 metre hurdles at the 1992 Barcelona Olympics, will be around on Saturday to offer advice and encouragement to potential future Olympians, as well as answering any questions.

Two main events have been lined up to test competitors on their running skills, with a 10k run taking place on Saturday at 1pm.

The multi-terrain course through Chase woodland will include a hydration station at the halfway point, while a DJ will play music to encourage runners to the finish.

On Sunday from 10am a six-hour challenge will test individual runners or teams of two, four or six to complete as many laps of a 7-kilometre course as possible in six hours.

Gunnell, an ambassador for event sponsors McCain, said: "This type of event is so great because each member of the family can be involved."

"The McCain Track and Field experience will make the weekend perfect for all ages and if you're not much of a runner, you can come and try out the throwing or jumping in the pod."

"I'm excited to see children and parents all having a go together, and I'll be there to cheer everyone on."

Families are welcome to stay on site all weekend, from 5pm on Friday to 11am on Monday.

Bill Bartlett, corporate affairs director at McCain Foods, added: "Love Life Love Running is a fantastic family weekend and supported with the presence of the McCain Track and Field experience, it's great to see how much fun athletics can be."

"As principal partner of UK Athletics we are committed to getting more families more active more often and Love Life Love Running is the perfect opportunity for youngsters and adults of all ages to try their hand at the activities on offer."

Visit www.lovelifeloverunning.co.uk for more details and a full schedule of events.

Hylton flies high against champ Taylor

RUGELEY darts pro Mark Hylton said it was a 'dream come true' to share the stage with darts legend Phil Taylor. 'Mile High' came close to a stunning upset at the World Matchplay in Blackpool on Monday night (July 18).

Hylton ditched his job as an airline cabin manager to turn pro 19 months ago and pushed 15-time world champion Taylor all the way before losing 10-8 at the Winter Gardens.

And the 45-year-old believes his display proved he is now among the leading players in the world.

"It was a great game and I really enjoyed it. I've had lots of positive feedback and there are no negatives whatsoever," said Hylton. "I've sat at home watching the TV over the years seeing Taylor win title after title so to share the stage with him was a dream come true.

"I think most people thought Taylor would win easy but the fans love a battler, which I am, and when I got back into it they were really on my side.

"I was disappointed to lose but pleased with how I played."

Hylton, who still plays for The Castle in Brereton, impressed Taylor and has been tipped to go on to bigger things.

Taylor said: "He is one of the best comeback players I've ever played against."

Meanwhile, budding darts ace Danny Williams has once again shown his potential by winning two recent matches.

The Hagley Park Sports College pupil, won the open and under-21 sections at the recent Rugeley Festival of Darts, held at the Red Rose Theatre in Taylors Lane.

The 13-year-old then went on to win the under-14 category at the Warwickshire Open Darts Tournament.

A spokesman for the school, where Danny is captain of the darts team, said: "These recent triumphs just prove him to be a real rising star with the potential to go far in the world of professional darts."

RUGBY TOWN 0 CHASESTOWN 1

AFTER the belated postponement of the fixture at Pelsall Villa, the trip to Rugby became Chasetown's first pre-season game of the campaign.

Chasetown lined up with debuts for Lawrence Heward, Darren Stride, Jake Sedgemore and Alex Steadman, with two further debutants on the bench, Adebayo Ajidahun and Malachi Farquharson.

The Scholars started brightly and deservedly took the lead just short of the half hour mark. Danny Smith's skill took him into the penalty area, and, rather than electing to shoot, looked up and teed the ball into the path of Ramone Stephens whose goalbound shot took a deflection on its way past Smith in the Rugby goal.

New signing Alex Steadman almost netted a second when his shot came back off the post. Five minutes before half-time, Rugby should have levelled, but Preston blazed over Ryan Price's crossbar from close range.

Chasetown started the second half brightly and Dean Perrow shot narrowly before the customary ruck of pre-season substitutions.

Midway through the half, former Scholars favourite Ben Steane should have equalised, but inexplicably missed the target with a close range header.

As the half wore on, Rugby looked the stronger, and the fact they had played other friendlies prior to tonight was beginning to show.

That said the Scholars had put in a useful workout, with Danny Smith leading the line and shading Man of the Match.

Boss Blakemore's looking forward to 'superb' Villa test

AN ASTON VILLA XI will visit the Scholars Ground to take on Chasetown in a pre-season friendly next Tuesday July 26. Kick-off is at 7.30pm.

This adds further spice to an already busy pre-season programme, with several top sides set to visit the Scholars Ground and Chasetown also to feature a number of leading Midlands non-league clubs.

Manager Charlie Blakemore said: "This is an excellent game for us against Premier League quality – it will be a superb test for our lads."

"We have got a really exciting pre-season line up at home against two Premier League sides in Stoke and Aston Villa and three local top non league sides in AFC Telford, Tamworth and Mansfield. It will be great for the lads and the supporters too."

Club chairman John Donnelly added: "The club has a really impressive line-up of pre-season games this year and this will really raise the profile of the side."

Admission to all home pre-season friendlies will be £6 for adults and £3 for concessions.

The full list of friendlies now reads like this: Thursday July 21 Heath Hayes (A), 7.45pm; Saturday July 23 Stoke City (H), 3pm; Tuesday July 26, Aston Villa (H), 7.30pm; Thursday July 28 Tamworth (H), 7.45pm; Saturday July 30 Boldmere St Michaels (A), 3pm; Thursday August 4 AFC Telford United (H), 7.45pm; Saturday August 6 Mansfield Town (H), 3pm.

Pitmen make it a pre-season double

HEATH HAYES 1 HEDNESFORD 2

MARVIN Robinson ensured the Pitmen won their second straight pre-season fixture with a clever header from a teasing Alex Melbourne cross on 79 minutes.

Heath Hayes had taken the lead in the first half and played the better of the football.

The Pitmen failed to really click into gear during the first 45 minutes but did twice hit the woodwork through Mark Danks and Jay Denny.

The standout moment for the home side came on the half hour mark when Ben Haseley ghosted past three Pitmen defenders and curled a superb left-footed shot past Dan Crane.

HEDNESFORD TOWN

The lead lasted all of 13 minutes as Chris Clements confidently converted a penalty after Jamie Osborne had been felled in the area.

A raft of substitutions at half-time seemed to liven up The Pitmen Robinson settled the match.

AFC WULFRUNIAN 0 HEDNESFORD TOWN 5

A strong performance by Hednesford Town against a plucky AFC Wulfrunians side saw Rob Smith's team record their first win of their pre-season campaign.

The Pitmen registered no less than six shots on target in the opening half hour. Only a superb finish by Jay Denny found the net though.

Hednesford took control in the second half with new signing Mark Danks hanging up a brilliant cross for Marvin Robinson to nod in and then hitting an unstoppable shot inside the far post on 56 minutes.

Mark Briggs hit the post for the home side but Nick Wellescombe bagged another two goals with a smart finish and an easy tap in to finish the rout.

Further good news came when Elliott Durrell made his long awaited return.

'Forgotten' Durrell to return

FORGOTTEN Pitman Elliott Durrell has made a steady return to first team action during the last week for the first time in more than nine months. The diminutive former Telford man had suffered a career-threatening knee injury which robbed him of the opportunity to play a part in Hednesford Town's most successful season for some years.

He is now hoping he can repay the faith shown in him by the club, the supporters and the management team who invested in a private operation by expert surgeons in Oswestry to repair the damage.

"It's a big relief if I'm honest. I ruptured my anterior cruciate ligament," said Durrell. "I hadn't really come across the injury but it was one of the worst ones you can get so that was very difficult."

The faith paid in him by the Pitmen management duo was an important aspect in Durrell's recovery. He originally injured the knee in the opening 15 minutes of pre-season against Stafford Rangers last year and then injured it again during Rob Smith and Larry Chambers' first game in charge against Brackley in October. Durrell admits it was hard to feel part of the team during that time but says he grew closer to everyone in the squad as he watched the Pitmen come within seconds of promotion.

"I had stages where I was a million miles from the squad and it was very difficult. When the new gaffer came in he brought everyone together and since the turn of the year we really clicked as a group. It was hard for us to miss out but we know this year we will be able to come back in a new league and prove ourselves again."

Following Hednesford Town's 2-1 win over Heath Hayes on Saturday afternoon, the Supporters Association hosted a well-attended race night to raise funds towards a new club shop.

More than £700 was raised and joint-chairman Mark Goodwin said: "It was great to see our first social event prove a success and raise some much needed money for a new shop."

Penkridge run is now 11 in a row

PENKRIDGE 1STS (111-1)

BEAT ALDRIDGE (108) BY NINE WICKETS

Penkridge 1st XI's unprecedented run of victories continued as they thrashed Aldridge on Saturday, making it 11 in a row.

Aldridge took the fatal decision to bat first and Penkridge's attack made them pay as Roger Weston (4-46) and former Aldridge player Ross Shelton (2-21) ensured they were routed for just 108 in the 29th over, despite the rearguard efforts of Imran Jamshed with 46.

Penkridge opens Saleem Malik (47) and Alex Watson (44 not out) then raced Penkridge towards victory in the 21st over.

PENKRIDGE 2NDS (242-9) DREW WITH ALDRIDGE (210-9)

The 2nd XI were involved in a thrilling contest at Aldridge. The visitors were asked to bat and made with 212-9 with Simon Parnaby on 45, Mohammed Shafiq making 32 and skipper Rob Lawrence 36. The game hung in the balance right through the Aldridge innings with Matt Wilkinson (65) and James Whitlock (27) threatening a victory over the league leaders.

Penkridge's composure at the death coupled with some suspect running between the wickets meant the Aldridge innings closed on 210-9.

PENKRIDGE 3RDS (308-6) BEAT BREWOOD (108) BY 200 RUNS

The third XI game was dominated by a double century from Mohammed Ishfaq who finished 200 not out, notching up the milestone in the last over of the Penkridge innings.

Steve Jones (40) and Adam Ball (32) provided able support as Penkridge closed on 308-6.

Brewood struggled in the face of some accurate medium pace bowling from Khalid Sadiq (4-46) and Ishfaq completed a fantastic all round effort with 3-25 as Brewood collapsed to 108 all out in the 32nd over.

CANNOCK 3RDS (187-6) BEAT COSELEY 2NDS (184) BY FOUR WICKETS

Leaders Cannock extended their lead against a full strength Coseley side. Coseley passed the 100 mark after 20 overs for the loss of just two wickets and a large total looked on the cards before they faltered and closed on 184.

In reply Cannock were 80-3 but with the in form Connor Shingler batting sensibly, reached their target with six overs to spare with Shingler hitting the winning runs to finish 65 no.

CANNOCK U-15S (97-1) BEAT FORDHOUSES U-15S (93-3) BY NINE WICKETS

Cannock moved into second place with win number nine. Despite an opening partnership of 43 Fordhouses closed on 93-3 with Elliot Horton returning figures of 2-14.

Cannock were always easily in front of the required rate. Dan Starkey was out for a personal best 40 before Connor Shingler (13) finished things off with a few lusty blows with Dan Wood not out at the other end on 26.

AN INCREDIBLE NEW FORM OF HEATING FROM GERMANY

This incredible heating could be the answer to help beat the ever increasing energy costs and amazingly, it is not, gas or oil, or solid fuel - but electric! It's clean, Simple to install, Powerful, Economical, and no more servicing costs - EVER! All you need is a normal electricity supply and a plug socket and NO standard tariff like economy seven.

In Germany, Austria, Eastern Europe and even America, more and more people are choosing to heat their homes and offices with this very special form of electric heating in preference to gas, oil, LPG or any other form of conventional central heating or economy seven.

Here in the Midlands more and more of our customers are making that same decision and when you see this incredible heating for yourself, you could be next!

The heating looks just like a conventional radiator, but STOP! It is very, very different!

Put simply, the clunky central heating boiler needing constant servicing and replacement parts isn't the only choice any more!

Now you can choose to heat your homes, offices, extensions or conservatories with this incredible

German heating which provides individual control over every single room without the need for a central control or space to site a boiler. Now the boiler space can also become a storage area!

Installation takes minutes and running is completely clean, there is no danger of leakage, no holes through walls, no floorboards up and no tradesmen trundling around the house wielding pipe cutters, hammers, wrenches and dirty work-boots. This incredible heating simply plugs in and that's it! Job Done! You can even do just one room or the whole house! Get your free info pack right away by calling 01889 576732.

Is electric heating expensive to run? You'll be amazed! Electric heating has never looked like this before, however, this is not new, it has been a mainstream form of heating for a very long time in Germany and Austria and for many people actually in preference to central heating with gas, oil or even economy 7
